If you like this book, write a review Home by the Harbor Barbara Mitchell, Hannah's return to Seabrook, the quaint fishing town of her childhood, is more than just a homecoming; it's a plunge into a sea of memories, both bittersweet and joyful. Years have passed since she left, carrying with her a heart burdened by past disappointments. But the familiar scent of salt air and the rhythmic crashing of waves against the shore awaken something deep within her, stirring long-dormant feelings she thought buried forever. Liam, her high school sweetheart, remains a steadfast presence in this harbor town, his life inextricably linked to the sea and the community he calls home. Their reunion is a delicate dance between the familiar comfort of old affections and the apprehension of navigating a present shaped by years apart. This is not simply a tale of rekindled romance; it's a story about facing past insecurities, confronting unspoken emotions, and learning to forgive oneself and others. The idyllic setting of Seabrook, with its picturesque harbors and the vast, ever-changing ocean, serves as a poignant backdrop to Hannah and Liam's journey. It's a place where second chances bloom, where old wounds heal, and where the possibility of a love deeper and more profound than they ever imagined waits to be discovered. Through the shared experiences, quiet moments of reflection, and the inevitable challenges that life throws their way, Hannah and Liam will rediscover the enduring strength of their connection, learning that the truest loves are often the ones that find their way back to us unexpectedly and close to home. Prepare to be captivated by this heartwarming tale of forgiveness, self-discovery, and the extraordinary power of love to mend even the most fractured of
