Love Confessed An Anthology:

Love Confessed Derek Parker, 1983-01      CONFESSIONS Ishani Bhattacharya, Hello Readers Thank you so much for picking up this book We are glad that you want to spend your time reading the confessions of the writers However before you delve into the heartfelt revelations can you think of a meaning of confessions Well if you look up into the dictionary it should be accepting being guilty of committing a crime But from the compiler's view confession is the acknowledgement and the acceptance of the self The human self is often held guilty of expressing its true identity and feelings You see our self is often made not a house that embraces emotions but a storehouse that dumps sentiments Because the sentiments are usually buried human beings mostly feel attacked and threatened by their inner self This is the reason why humans are latched in their outer world The humans who were supposed to be the conduit of the home and the world do not know how to worship their home their sentiments So to turn individuals to their home for sometime Confessions was created This compilation is aimed to alter the literal meaning of confessions The compiler urged the writers to own up to their sentiments and see their inner world as their power So my lovely readers what you will read at every turn in confessions is the POWER OF SENTIMENTS

Confessions Anjali Jha, Sometimes some places with someone we can't share our feelings and problems because we can't imagine about their mood and what they will think if we want to share our feelings to them and in this condition our feelings and emotions remain buried deep inside our heart and creating chaos inside the heart that sometimes too shall pass through our mind to throw out but we can't So sometimes we are trying to share our feelings only to our best friend and that is pen and paper for us So to confess our feelings to the world we have brought a book which is very close to us to share our hidden feelings in the book named Confessions

Confessing History John Fea, Jay Green, Eric Miller, 2010-11-15 At the end of his landmark 1994 book The Soul of the American University historian George Marsden asserted that religious faith does indeed have a place in today s academia Marsden s contention sparked a heated debate on the role of religious faith and intellectual scholarship in academic journals and in the mainstream media The contributors to Confessing History Explorations in Christian Faith and the Historian s Vocation expand the discussion about religion s role in education and culture and examine what the relationship between faith and learning means for the academy today The contributors to Confessing History ask how the vocation of historian affects those who are also followers of Christ What implications do Christian faith and practice have for living out one s calling as an historian And to what extent does one s calling as a Christian disciple speak to the nature quality or goals of one s work as scholar teacher adviser writer community member or social commentator Written from several different theological and professional points of view the essays collected in this volume explore the vocation of the historian and its place in both the personal and professional lives of Christian disciples      Books and Bookmen ,1986
