George Kouvaros, 2004 A good movie John Cassavetes has remarked will ask you questions you don't already know the answers to And in his films Cassavetes is as good as his word Taking up the radical question that Cassavetes's films consistently pose specifically where is the line between actor and character fiction and reality film and life George Kouvaros reveals the unique and illuminating position that Cassavetes's work occupies at the intersection of filmmaking and film theory Central to any understanding of Cassavetes's achievement is the issue of performance Looking at the work of Gena Rowlands Ben Gazzara and Cassavetes himself in films such as Faces A Woman under the Influence and The Killing of a Chinese Bookie Kouvaros shows how performative instances gestures words or glances open up intimations of dramas belonging neither strictly to these films nor to the everyday worlds in which they are immersed A major reassessment of the filmmaker as a formal experimenter Where Does It Happen gives Cassavetes his due as a filmmaker whose critical place in the modern cinema is only now becoming clear George Kouvaros is senior lecturer in the School of Theatre Film and Dance at the University of New South Wales Australia

When Movies Mattered Dave Kehr,2011-04-15 If you have ever wanted to dig around in the archives for that perfect Sunday afternoon DVD and first turned to a witty weekly column in the New York Times then you are already familiar with one of our nation s premier film critics If you love movies and the writers who engage them and just happen to have followed two of the highest circulating daily papers in the country then you probably recognize the name of the intellectually dazzling writer who has been penning pieces on American and foreign films for over thirty years And if you called the City of the Big Shoulders home in the 1970s or 1980s and relied on those trenchant incisive reviews from the Chicago Reader and the Chicago Tribune to guide your moviegoing delight then you know Dave Kehr When Movies Mattered presents a wide ranging and illuminating selection of Kehr s criticism from the Reader most of which is reprinted here for the first time including insightful discussions of film history and his controversial Top Ten lists Long heralded by his peers for both his deep knowledge and incisive style Kehr developed his approach to writing about film from the auteur criticism popular in the 70s

Though Kehr's criticism has never lost its intellectual edge it's still easily accessible to anyone who truly cares about movies. Never watered down and always razor sharp it goes beyond wary observations to an acute examination of the particular stylistic qualities that define the work of individual directors and determine the meaning of individual films. From current releases to important revivals from classical Hollywood to foreign fare Kehr has kept us spellbound with his insightful critical commentaries. When Movies Mattered will secure his place among our very best writers about all things cinematic. Where Were You Before The Tree of Life? Volume 5 Peter R. Farley, 2011-04-04 Volume 5 of 9 These books are the first to fully map out the history of alien interaction with the Earth past present and into the near future. Extending the work of noted researchers such as Erich Von Daniken and Zecharia Sitchin the book series goal is to show its readers the extensive repercussions this interaction has had on life on this planet especially its formative role in the global conspiracy known as the New World Order.

Film Quotations Robert A. Nowlan, Gwendolyn W. Nowlan, 2016-04-30 Certain lines define a movie. Marlene Dietrich in Morocco: "Anyone who has faith in me is a sucker." Too there are lines that fit actor and character. Mae West in I'm No Angel: "I'm very quick in a slow way." Jane Fonda in California Suite: "Fit You think I look fit. What an awful shit you are. I look gorgeous." From the classics to the grade B slasher movies over 11 000 quotes are arranged by over 900 subjects like accidents, double entendres, eyes and other body parts, ice cream, luggage, parasites and ugliness. Each quote gives the movie title, production company, year of release, speaker of the line and when appropriate a comment putting the quote in context.

The Neuro-Image Patricia Pisters, 2012-07-11 Arguing that today's viewers move through a character's brain instead of looking through his or her eyes or mental landscape this book approaches twenty-first century globalized cinema through the concept of the neuro image. Pisters explains why this concept has emerged now and she elaborates its threefold nature through research from three domains: Deleuzian schizoanalytic philosophy, digital networked screen culture and neuroscientific research. These domains return in the book's tripartite structure. Part One on the brain as neuroscreen suggests rich connections between film theory, mental illness and cognitive neuroscience. Part Two explores neuro images from a philosophical perspective paying close attention to their ontological, epistemological and aesthetic dimensions. Political and ethical aspects of the neuro image are discussed in Part Three. Topics covered along the way include the omnipresence of surveillance, the blurring of the false and the real and the affective powers of the neo baroque and the use of neuro images in politics, historical memory and war.

Rewriting Indie Cinema J. J. Murphy,2019-04-16 Most films rely on a script developed in pre production Yet beginning in the 1950s and continuing through the recent mumblecore movement key independent filmmakers have broken with the traditional screenplay Instead they have turned to new approaches to scripting that allow for more complex characterization and shift the emphasis from the page to performance In Rewriting Indie Cinema J J Murphy explores these alternative forms of scripting and how they have shaped American film from the 1950s to the present He traces a strain of indie cinema that used improvisation and psychodrama a therapeutic form of improvised acting based on a performer s own life experiences Murphy begins in the 1950s and 1960s with John Cassavetes Shirley Clarke Barbara Loden Andy Warhol Norman Mailer William Greaves and other independent directors who sought to create a new type of narrative cinema In the twenty first century filmmakers such as Gus Van Sant the Safdie brothers Joe Swanberg and Sean Baker developed similar strategies sometimes benefitting from the freedom of digital technology In reading key films and analyzing their techniques Rewriting Indie Cinema demonstrates how divergence from the script has blurred the divide between fiction and nonfiction Showing the ways in which filmmakers have striven to capture the subtleties of everyday behavior Murphy provides a new history of American indie filmmaking and how it challenges Hollywood industrial practices
