For Love of Country? Martha Nussbaum, 2002-06-06 After the terrorist attacks on the Pentagon and the World Trade Center American flags appeared everywhere Is patriotism a good response at a time of national crisis What does it mean for us to think of ourselves as a nation first With our connections to the world growing stronger and more vital than ever Martha C Nussbaum argues that we should distrust conventional patriotism as parochial and instead see ourselves first of all as citizens of the world Sixteen prominent writers and thinkers respond including Benjamin R Barber Sissela Bok Nathan Glazer Robert Pinsky Elaine Scarry Amartya Sen and Michael Walzer NEW DEMOCRACY FORUM A series of short paperback originals exploring creative solutions to our most urgent national concerns The series editors for Boston Review Joshua Cohen and Joel Rogers aim to foster politically engaged intellectually honest and morally serious debate about fundamental issues both on and off the agenda of conventional politics

For Love of Country William C. Hammond, 2011-03-15 For Love of Country is the second novel of the early American republic in the nautical series from William Hammond Set in the early 1780s in the years following the American Revolution it features the adventures of the seafaring Cutler family of Hingham Massachusetts and the supporting cast from the first novel of the series A Matter of Honor Hammond offers an exciting look at life in the young republic a time when America remained a weak nation with no navy to protect its prosperous merchant fleet from Barbary pirates and European nations intent on crippling its shipping The novel opens with the capture of the Cutler merchant brig Eagle by Barbary pirates Young Caleb Cutler and his shipmates are taken as prisoners to Algiers Richard his brother is then sent to North Africa to pay the ransom demanded by the Dey of Algiers to free them When the dey rejects the offer Richard must defend his ship and the ransom from attack by Algerian pirates After repulsing the pirates in a fierce battle at sea Richard travels to Paris to report to John Paul Jones his former naval commander who has been dispatched to serve as America's emissary to the Barbary States In Paris amid the tumult of the French Revolution Richard engages in a desperate attempt to save his former lover the beautiful Anne Marie Helvétienne and her two daughters from the guillotine The author's careful historical research and thorough knowledge of sailing and the ways of the sea bring authenticity to the novel without detracting from the entertaining storyline Hammond's focus on the American perspective of the Age of Fighting Sail in the years following the American Revolution adds a fresh dimension to historical novels of the period Gray and his school. Sterne. Country books. George Eliot. Autobiography. Carlyle's ethics. The state trials. Coleridge Leslie Stephen, 1907 Love In Another Country Mulugeta Semework, 2007-07 Jasmin Whiteside is the favored daughter of a typically rich white American family But when she falls in love with a bright handsome Ethiopian named Getawork the couple is suddenly propelled into a world full of doubt insecurity and fear Jasmin and Getawork meet at Georgia State University where both of them are studying for a master's degree Quickly falling in love Jasmin and Getawork do not see race when they look at each other but Jasmin's family sees little else She refuses to stop seeing Getawork and even threatens suicide if her family tries to end the relationship and he vows to stay by her side Facing intolerance and fear the couple bravely defies the odds clinging to their love when the world around them does nothing but point a censoring finger But when long buried family secrets of the Whiteside family suddenly emerge Jasmin and Getawork's relationship is again threatened With their love hanging in the balance Jasmin faces a decision she doesn't want to make Will love be stronger than family loyalty Love in Another Country weaves a tantalizing

A Nearby Country Called Love Salar

Abdoh,2024-11-05 A sweeping propulsive novel about the families we are born into and the families we make for ourselves in which a man struggles to find his place in an Iran on the brink of combusting Amid the alleyways of the Zamzam neighborhood of Tehran a woman lights herself on fire in a desperate act of defiance setting off a chain reaction of violence and protest Haunted by the woman's death Issa is forced to confront the contradictions of his own family history throughout which his late brother Hashem a prominent queer artist in Tehran's underground had defied their father a skilled martial artist bound to traditional notions of honor and masculinity Issa soon finds himself thrown into a circle of people living on the margins of society negotiating a razor like code of conduct that rewards loyalty and encourages aggression and intolerance in equal measure As the city explodes around him Issa realizes that it is the little acts of kindness that matter most the everyday humanity of individuals finding love and doing right by one another Vibrant and evocative intimate and intelligent A Nearby Country Called Love is both a captivating window into contemporary Iran and a portrait of the parallel fates of a man and his country a man who acknowledges the sullen and rumbling baggage of history but then chooses to step past its violent inheritance

Love of Country Madeleine Bunting,2017-04-11 Excellent Almost the perfect marriage of travelogue to the inner landscape of political ideas and cultural reflections a super read New Statesman Few landscapes are as striking as that of the Hebrides the hundreds of small islands that speckle the waters off Scotland's northwest coast The jagged rocky cliffs and roiling waves serve as a reminder of the islands dramatic geological history Facing the Atlantic the Hebrides were at the center of ancient shipping routes and have a remarkable cultural history After years of hearing about Scotland as a place interwoven with the story of her family Madeleine Bunting went to see for herself this place so full of history Over six years Bunting returned again and again to the Hebrides fascinated by the question of what it means to belong there With great sensitivity she takes readers through the Hebrides history of dispossession and displacement a history that can be understood only in the context of Britain's imperial past and she shows how the Hebrides have been repeatedly used to define and imagine Britain Love of Country is a revelatory journey through one of the world's most remote beautiful landscapes that encourages us to think of the many identities we wear as we walk our paths A remarkably thorough digest of the many histories of the Hebrides Wall Street Journal Moving and wonderful Both the author and reader of this book end up losing themselves not just in politics and history and the details of nature but a sense of wonder The Guardian Makes you feel you are there even if you have just left Observer Best Books of the Year
