Love Child A Memoir Of Adoption And Reunion Loss And Love:

Love Child Sue Elliott, 2005 In this enthralling memoir Sue Elliot tells her own story of growing up as an adopted child She details her emotional search for and meeting with her birth mother Marjorie the heartbreaking tale of how Marjorie came to give up Sue for adoption in 1950s England and the shock of finding that she Sue wasn't the only child given away by Marjorie Weaved throughout is the vivid emotional history of adoption in the UK Drawing on a wide range of intimate personal experiences it outlines the forces that shaped 20th century adoption practice from baby farming the stigma of illegitimacy incest and the bastardy laws children taken by force and mass emigration schemes to modern day adoption practices buying babies from abroad sperm donor fathers and tearful reunions on Trisha Love Child Sue Elliott, 2013

Adopted Women and Biological Fathers Elizabeth Hughes, 2017-03-01 Adopted Women and Biological Fathers offers a critical and deconstructive challenge to the dominant notions of adoptive identity The author explores adoptive women's experiences of meeting their biological fathers and reflects on personal narratives to give an authoritative overview of both the field of adoption and the specific history of adoption reunion This book takes as its focus the narratives of 14 adopted women as well as the partly fictionalised story of the author and examines their experiences of birth father reunion in an attempt to dissect the ways in which we understand adoptive female subjectivity through a psychosocial lens Opening a space for thinking about the role of the discursively neglected biological father this book exposes the enigmatic dimensions of this figure and how telling the relational story of reconciliation might be used to complicate wider categories of subjective completeness belonging and truth This book attempts to subvert the culturally normative unifying system of the mother child bond and prompts the reader to think about what the biological father might represent and how his role in relation to adoptive female subjects may be understood This book will be essential reading for those in critical psychology gender studies narrative work sociology and psychosocial studies as well as appealing to anyone interested in adoption issues and female subjectivity

Somebody's Daughter - a moving journey of discovery, recovery and adoption Zara Phillips, 2018-02-22 Her story is one that needs to be told and Zara does so with courage insight and beauty Nicky Campbell Zara H Phillips seemed to live a charmed life backing singer to the stars with an incredible career here and across the Atlantic but her smile masked a difficult childhood and the reality that she was adopted as a baby in the 60s Her life soon spiralled and as a teenager she suffered from drug and alcohol addiction as she struggled to find her birth parents and her true identity Somebody's Daughter is a fascinating and revealing account of how a beautiful woman's life has been dominated by her adoption and how it has affected her and those around her Hard hitting and emotional Zara's memoir explores the needs of adopted children with her characteristic warmth and wit and the true journey it takes to find where you belong

A History of Adoption in England and Wales 1850- 1961 Gill Rossini, 2014-11-30 Adoption is one of the most emotive and complex subjects in social and family history Gill Rossini's social history of adoption between 1850 and 1961

uncovers the perspectives of all those concerned in adoption children birth relatives adoptive families and all the agencies and organisations involved Rossini charts the transformation of the adoption process from a chaotic informal arrangement to a legal procedure Set against the backdrop of the moral cultural and legal climate of the times the contemporary voices of those who played a part in an adoption give real insights into this often turbulent period in their lives Discover how shocking stories of baby farmers and unwanted orphans fuelled the campaign for change and hear previously untold stories For those who wish to conduct their own research into an adoption Rossini has compiled a comprehensive guide to resources

Adoption and Law Lisamarie Deblasio, 2020-07-23 Using a socio legal framework this book explores the experiences that birth mothers face in state sanctioned adoption proceedings in the UK Featuring personal in depth interviews and conversations with 32 birth mothers the book highlights perspectives and voices that are seldom the focus in leading discourses of professional practice in this area of law The book also demands that the statutory rights support and care of birth mothers are recognised and strengthened This book delivers a comprehensive insight into many aspects and controversies of legal child adoption including the development and reform of adoption law over history giving the reader insight into the deep rooted political and social tensions around the use of adoption The uniqueness of birth mothers subjective stories of adoption contrasts powerfully with the legal theory providing the reader with an intimate paradigm of adoption The book includes discussion of obiter dicta and authoritative guidance on adoption practice from the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal in Re B A Child Care Proceedings Appeal 2013 UKSC 33 and Re B S Children Adoption Leave to Oppose 2013 EWCA Civ 1146 It also considers Court of Appeal's recent ruling on post adoption contact in Re B A Child Post Adoption Contact 2019 EWCA Civ 29 the first case to come before the court since section 9 of the Children and Families Act 2014 amended the Adoption and Children Act 2002 with the new insertion of section 51A and 51B providing for court ordered post adoption contact This book is ideally suited to undergraduate students as well as a more multi disciplinary audience

Mother Me Zara H. Phillips, 2011 The adopted daughter of loving parents Zara Phillips nonetheless felt out of place in her family and a misfit in the world around her Although cherished by a well meaning mother and father she grew up feeling deeply insecure and alone consumed by a void she found impossible to fill Isolation led to alienation yet her talent brought her to the center of the thriving London rock n roll scene of the 1980s Her downward spiral fueled by its lifestyle Zara became lost in drugs alcohol and destructive relationships An intense search for the truth of her birth led to an awakening and successful recovery Yet it was her experience of becoming a mother that revealed what being an adopted person really meant to her For the first time she gained deep understanding and compassion for both her birth mother and her adoptive mother and was able to start the healing process The tale of Zara's search for her birth mother and her path to health is riveting as are the stories of many people sharing her past Zara's activism for adoptee rights springs from a very personal passion Mother Me is a brave and compelling memoir that illuminates the lifelong impact of adoption on every member of the adoption triad adoptee birth mother and adoptive mother as well as the families of each

Life Lines: Writing Transcultural Adoption John McLeod, 2015-10-22 Adoptions that cross the lines of culture race and nation are a major consequence of conflicts around the globe yet their histories and representations have rarely been considered Life Lines Writing Transcultural Adoption is the first critical study to explore narratives of transcultural adoption from contemporary Britain Ireland and America fictions films and memoirs made by those within the adoption triad or those concerned with the pain and possibilities of transcultural adoption While acknowledging the sobering inequalities which engender transcultural adoptions and the lasting upset of sundered relations at the same time John McLeod considers the transfigurative and creative propensity of imagining transcultural adoption as radically calling into question ideas of biogenetic attachment racial genealogy cultural identity and normative family making How might the predicament of being adopted transculturally enable the transformative agency of adoptive being for all Exploring works by Andrea Levy Barbara Kingsolver Toni Morrison Sebastian Barry Caryl Phillips Jackie Kay and several others Life Lines makes a groundbreaking intervention in such fields as transcultural studies postcolonial thought and adoption theory and practice

Finding Margaret Andrew Pierce, 2024-05-23 At the age of fifty and despite feeling like he was betraying the adoptive parents who loved him so much journalist and broadcaster Andrew Pierce began to tentatively search for his birth mother only to discover that she had done everything she could to ensure he would never find her When he finally tracks her down the mystery only deepens leading him to Ireland to seek out information about the man who may or may not have been his father During his search Andrew discovers horrifying revelations about the orphanage where he had spent the first two years of his life and attempts to forge a relationship with the woman who gave him away This candid story is a heartwarming page turner that takes the reader on an extraordinary journey Full of amusing and arresting anecdotes at its heart lies the inspirational story of one man's search for his birth mother and what happened when he finally found her

The Changing Legal Regulation of Cohabitation Rebecca Probert, 2012-09-06 This book has three key aims first to show how the legal treatment of cohabiting couples has changed over the past four centuries from punishment as fornicators in the seventeenth century to eventual acceptance as family in the late twentieth second to chart how the language used to refer to cohabitation has changed over time and how different terms influenced policy debates and public perceptions and third to estimate the extent of cohabitation in earlier centuries To achieve this it draws on hundreds of reported and unreported cases as well as legislation policy papers and debates in Parliament thousands of newspaper reports and magazine articles and innovative cohort studies that provide new and more reliable evidence as to the incidence or rather the rarity of cohabitation in eighteenth and nineteenth century England It concludes with a consideration of the relationship between legal regulation and social trends

Cohabitation and Non-Marital Births in England and Wales, 1600-2012 R. Probert, 2014-06-23 Today cohabiting relationships account for most births outside marriage But what was the situation in earlier centuries Bringing together leading historians demographers and lawyers this interdisciplinary collection draws on a wide range of sources to examine the changing context of non marital child bearing in England and Wales since 1600 Love Child Sue Elliott,2012-09-30

Adoption is one of the great untold stories of our recent past It is a truly epic tale of loss guilt identity family feuds reunion and redemption It is a subject until very recently surrounded by secrecy and taboos This is the heart warming true story of a little girl s adoption in the 1950s and her search nearly forty years later for her birth mother When mother and daughter meet Sue thinks she has finally reached the end of her journey Then Sue discovers she wasn t the only baby her mother gave away Weaved throughout is the vivid emotional history of adoption in the UK Drawing on a wide range of intimate personal experiences it outlines the forces that shaped 20th century adoption practice from baby farming the stigma of illegitimacy incest and the bastardy laws to children taken by force the Magdalene laundries mass emigration schemes without parental consent to modern day adoption practices buying babies from abroad sperm donor fathers and tearful reunions on Trisha
