

A photograph of a park bench in autumn. The ground is covered in fallen orange and yellow leaves. In the background, there are trees with similar foliage. A semi-transparent dark rectangle is overlaid on the image, containing a quote in white text. Below the quote, the name 'Mother Teresa' is written in a smaller, pinkish font, and a small circular logo with the word 'quotefancy' is visible at the bottom center of the rectangle.

The hunger for love is much more difficult to remove than the hunger for bread.

Simons,Trevor Melia,1989 Capturing the lively modernist milieu of Kenneth Burke's early career in Greenwich Village where Burke arrived in 1915 fresh from high school in Pittsburgh this book discovers him as an intellectual apprentice conversing with the moderns Burke found himself in the midst of an avant garde peopled by Malcolm Cowley Marianne Moore Jean Toomer Katherine Anne Porter William Carlos Williams Allen Tate Hart Crane Alfred Stieglitz and a host of other fascinating figures Burke himself who died in 1993 at the age of 96 has been hailed as America's most brilliant and suggestive critic and the most significant theorist of rhetoric since Cicero Many schools of thought have claimed him as their own but Burke has defied classification and indeed has often been considered a solitary eccentric genius immune to intellectual fashions But Burke's formative work of the 1920s when he first defined himself and his work in the context of the modernist conversation has gone relatively unexamined Here we see Burke living and working with the crowd of poets painters and dramatists affiliated with Others magazine Stieglitz's 291 gallery and Eugene O'Neill's Provincetown Players the leftists associated with the magazines The Masses and Seven Arts the Dadaists and the modernist writers working on literary journals like The Dial where Burke in his capacity as an associate editor saw T.S. Eliot's The Wasteland into print for the first time and provided other editorial services for Thomas Mann e.e. cummings Ezra Pound and many other writers of note Burke also met the iconoclasts of the older generation represented by Theodore Dreiser and H.L. Mencken the New Humanists and the literary nationalists who founded Contact and The New Republic Jack Selzer shows how Burke's own early poems fiction and essays emerged from and contributed to the modernist conversation in Greenwich Village He draws on a wonderfully rich array of letters between Burke and his modernist friends and on the memoirs of his associates to create a vibrant portrait of the young Burke's transformation from aesthete to social critic      The Living Church ,1919      Raising a Lady in Waiting Jackie Kendall,2013-04-16 Raising Daughters Who Refuse to Settle In a culture that emphasizes finding the right pair of jeans over waiting for the right man there is no time to sit back and hope everything just pans out Mom you are your daughter's greatest influence mentor and relationship coach It is time to take action The most important decision of your daughter's life is who will be her Master the second is who will be her mister You play a vital role in preparing her to make this choice Bestselling author Jackie Kendall opens her heart and candidly shares four decades worth of experience with mothers who are raising daughters to navigate the challenges of relationships These principles help you effectively guide your daughter to Maintain high relationship standards Guard her mind from false relationship images Teach her the value of waiting for God's best Kids are passing school while flunking in relationships Raising a Lady in Waiting provides you with the keys necessary to safeguard your daughter from pursuing

Reid Meloy, 2013-06-17 The Mark of Cain makes available for the first time the accumulated psychoanalytic understanding of the psychopathic mind Editor Reid Meloy a leading authority on the psychology of the psychopath has brought together in a single collection the most historically important psychoanalytic papers on the psychopath and delineated their continuing relevance to contemporary understanding According to Meloy two theoretical traditions flow into the psychoanalytic understanding of psychopathy The first tributary focuses on the early development of the psychopath in order to illuminate how a profound alteration in self regard leads both to a denigration of the other and to an impulsive search for gratification in the present The second tributary seeks to locate the psychopathic miscarriage of human potentiality within analytic theories of personality structure and clinically grounded differential diagnosis Meloy presents the major contributions associated with both of these traditions Included within this body of literature are the original formulations of concepts that have long since become part of the psychoanalytic nomenclature the affectionless juvenile offender the diagnostic significance of affect hunger the behavioral consequences of superego lacunae the recourse to promiscuous identification in the impostor and the paradoxically lethal lure of malignant narcissism Of special interest are Meloy s historical notes to each chapter and two section introductions the latter major essays in their own right The explosion of empirical research on psychopathy over the past two decades masks the fact that much contemporary work in this area is grounded in the clinical formulations of leading psychoanalysts of the twentieth century The Mark of Cain rescues this intimate understanding of the inner world of the psychopath and thereby contributes to clinical realism in the face of deception manipulation exploitation and even frank dangerousness

The Signature of all Things Jacob Boehme, 2014-05-29 It is not to be thought that the life of darkness is sunk in misery and lost as if in sorrow There is no sorrowing For sorrowing is a thing swallowed up in death and death and dying are the very life of the darkness Jacob Boehme's mystical pantheism and dialectical conception of God in which good and evil are rooted in one and the same being soon brought him into conflict with Lutheran orthodoxy It is in The Signature of all Things Signatura Rerum that the tenets of Boehme's theosophy are related in their greatest detail Casting the reader into the vortex of his cosmological universe Boehme's endeavour to express a new sense of the human divine and natural realms attains its apotheosis in his conception of the Ungrund the uncertainty that precedes the divine will's arousing itself to self awareness Challenging and rewarding in equal measure this is a profound text deeply influential upon devotional writers such as William Law visionaries such as William Blake informing The Marriage of Heaven and Hell and more recently upon cultural production as diverse as the psychology of Carl Jung and Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials trilogy
