Mediation and Love: A Study of the Medieval Go-Between in Key Romance and Near-Eastern Texts Leyla Rouhi, 1999-02-23 This study offers a typology of the go between across key texts from antiquity and several medieval literary traditions analyzing the role of the third party in the poetics of love The work provides the indispensable context for the study of the significant transformations undergone by the go between Legal and scientific sources are taken into account alongside Latin French and English literary works and literature of the medieval Islamic period for the critique of differences and intertextual links which inform the conception of the go between The case of the Medieval Spanish go between is given a special attention due to the figure's complex relationship with diverse traditions The range covered in the work provides a comprehensive view of the figure's trajectory and representation in each text      Faithfulness in Action Katharine D.

Sakenfeld, 2001-12-05 The broad outlines of God's faithfulness have of course been well known But this rereading by Professor Sakenfeld lets us see much that we have missed This book thus raises important questions not only about exegetical substance but also about the interpretive process The two belong together The combination here is a welcome articulation Walter Brueggemann from the Foreword      Leadership through the Lens Creshema R. Murray, 2017-12-19 Television informs our perceptions and expectations of leaders and offers a guide to understanding how we as organizational actors should communicate act and relate Because of its pervasiveness as a medium and the impact it can have in influencing expectations of leadership and related behavior within organizational life television can be understood an important pedagogical tool Leadership through the Lens Interrogating Production Presentation and Power is an edited collection of 11 chapters that address representations of leadership in scripted and unscripted workplace settings showcasing the innovative ways in which diverse leadership styles are illustrated in a variety of contexts on television With a unique approach at the intersection of leadership and mass media studies this book shows how the two disciplines coexist to inform how leadership culture is produced and transformed via presentation and representations on television      Ultimate Ambiguities Peter

Berger, Justin Kroesen, 2015-11-01 Periods of transition are often symbolically associated with death making the latter the paradigm of liminality Yet many volumes on death in the social sciences and humanities do not specifically address liminality This book investigates these ultimate ambiguities assuming they can pose a threat to social relationships because of the disintegrating forces of death but they are also crucial periods of creativity change and emergent aspects of social and religious life Contributors explore death and liminality from an interdisciplinary perspective and present a global range of historical and contemporary case studies outlining emotional cognitive artistic social and political implications      The

Observer in Dialogue Sir Roger L'Estrange, 1684      John Norden's The Surveyor's Dialogue (1618) Mark Netzloff, 2016-05-06 This edition provides the first complete modern version of John Norden's The Surveyor's Dialogue

Norden's text a series of dialogues between a fictional surveyor and several interlocutors including a tenant farmer an aristocrat landowner a manorial officer and a socially mobile land buyer is remarkable for its unique commentary on the agrarian roots of English capitalism In his extensive introduction Mark Netzloff situates the text in relation to a number of early modern contexts He discusses the use of dialogue and other literary forms in proto scientific writing and the role of print in the increasing professionalism of early surveyors Netzloff also examines the impact of capital formation on agrarian and manorial class relations discussing topics such as popular protest and revolt cottagers and the rural poor regionalism and urbanization and the transformation of the natural environment through deforestation enclosure and the appropriation of commons Alongside a thorough annotation of technical and historical terms the edition provides a list of textual variants among early modern versions of the text This critical edition of The Surveyor's Dialogue constitutes an important contribution to early modern scholarship and it will be invaluable to scholars from a range of fields including the history of science economic and agrarian history and literary and cultural studies
