Love Laurie:

The Life and Loves of Laurie Lee Valerie Grove, 2014-06-19 Millions of readers know and love him for his lyrical portraits of his life from the moving and nostalgic tales of childhood and innocence found in the pages of Cider with Rosie to the nomadic wanderings through Spain retold in As I Walked Out One Midsummer Morning to his dramatic experiences fighting Franco's forces in A Moment of War As a poet playwright broadcaster and writer Laurie Lee created a legend around himself that would see him safely secured in the literary canon even within his own lifetime Yet though he wrote exclusively about his own life Lee never told the whole story His readers know him as a man devoted to two women his wife and his daughter the firstborn Among the pages of his published works there is little trace of the girls he left behind He never identified in print the girl who inspired him to go to Spain or the woman who supported him there He never named the beautiful mistress he came home to who was the great love of his young life and who led him into literary London bore his child and broke his heart In The Life and Loves of Laurie Lee acclaimed biographer Valerie Grove delves into the letters and diaries he kept hidden from the world building on her magisterial study of the charismatic poet to capture the essence of this romantic elusive enigma and bring him to life once more

Dancing Transnational Feminisms Ananya Chatterjea, Hui Niu Wilcox, Alessandra Lebea Williams, 2022-01-27 Through empowered movement that centers the lives stories and dreams of marginalized women

Ananya Dance Theatre has revealed how the practice of and commitment to artistic excellence can catalyze social justice. With each performance this professional dance company of Black, Brown, and Indigenous gender non-conforming women and femmes of color challenges heteronormative patriarchy, white supremacist paradigms, and predatory global capitalism. Their creative artistic processes and vital interventions have transformed the spaces of contemporary concert dance into sites of empowerment, resistance, and knowledge production. Drawing from more than fifteen years of collaborative dance making and sustained dialogues based on deep alliances across communities of color, Dancing Transnational Feminisms offers a multi-genre exploration of how dance can be intersectionally reimagined as practice, methodology, and metaphor for feminist solidarity. Blending essays with stories, interviews, and poems, this collection explores timely questions surrounding race and performance, gender and sexuality, art and politics, global and local inequities, and the responsibilities of artists toward their communities.

Nancy Culpepper Bobbie Ann Mason, 2007-08-14 Kentucky native Nancy Culpepper boldly left home to attend school in Massachusetts, married a Yankee, and raised her son in the Northeast. One day I was feeding chickens and listening to Hank Williams, and the next day I was expected to know what wines went with what she tells her husband Jack. Yet no matter where she travels, her rural southern heritage is never far from her thoughts, her habits, and her heart. Nancy is on a lifelong quest to understand her place in the world. Returning home to the family farm, she searches for photographic evidence of an ancestor bearing her own name. Still in her jeans, she brings home strange ideas and an assertiveness she learned up north. Always adventurous, Nancy travels far and wide, searching, seeking. The narrative sweep of her life traverses the turbulent sixties, the Vietnam War, the eighties, and the foreboding death of John Lennon, and finally the new millennium when a self-assured Nancy finally emerges. These humorous and often touching stories recount her courtship and marriage to Jack, her relationship with her precocious son, and the deep loving bond between her parents, Spence and Lila Culpepper. Eventually, Nancy's marriage is threatened by a cultural divide that plagued her and Jack from the start. But when she inherits the Culpepper family farm and discovers more pieces of her ancestral puzzle, she realizes that her life is assuming its proper shape. Later, standing on a lonely mountain in England, she sees the world from a surprising perspective. Bestselling author Bobbie Ann Mason's prizewinning Nancy Culpepper chronicles have appeared in The New Yorker, The Boston Globe, The Southern Review, and other distinguished literary anthologies. She has compiled these stories into one definitive collection which includes the novella Spence Lila, two new, never before published stories, and one Pushcart Prize winner, Heartfelt. And thought provoking Nancy Culpepper is a poignant depiction of change and growth in a modern-day heroine.

God's Heart David L. Ream, 2024-01-24 Here is a phenomenological inquiry into the fruitful ministry of Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa's Sunday Morning Worship Service. The purpose was to uncover and explicate the quintessential elements of worship leading from the life experiences of those worship leaders who shared the platform with Pastor Chuck Smith known as the father of the Jesus Movement. The book examines Calvary Chapel's inauspicious beginnings in a senior citizen trailer park recreation center as it explores key elements of Kay and Chuck Smith's ministry. The church and the couple combined in 1965. By 1968 the church and the Smiths became a spiritual home replete with a spiritual mama and papa ministering to hippies seeking everlasting love and eternal peace. The fruitfulness of Calvary Chapel's ministry is its ability to reproduce maturing Christians that reproduce maturing Christians. This replication occurred thousands of times as the movement blossomed and spread to new churches and new ministries across the United States and globally. The phenomenon spawned a megachurch movement and birthed the modern Christian worship music industry. The hippies were alternately loathed and loved in their era. Perhaps the hippies' most enduring and endearing contributions to twenty-first century culture are traced to the Jesus movement.

Music in Early Childhood: Multi-disciplinary Perspectives and Inter-disciplinary Exchanges Susan Young, Beatriz Ilari, 2019-07-17 This book examines four main areas of music in early childhood: the traditions of music for young children, their capacities for music, the way they make music with others, and constructed and mediated musical childhoods. It studies several themes in detail, including music making in the home and family life, various musical experiences in schools, daycares, and the community at large in several locations around the globe. It looks at technology and diverse musical repertoires as well as innovative pedagogies, children's agency, and brain research. Expanding on the knowledge bases on which early childhood music education typically draws, the book brings together contributions from a range of authors from diverse fields such as education, psychology, sociology, cultural studies, anthropology, philosophy, ethnomusicology, and the neurosciences. The end result is a volume that offers a broad and contemporary picture of music in early childhood.

Murder on Wheels Stuart Palmer, 2013-05-14 The savvy Miss Withers investigates a mysterious hanging while driving in this delightful addition to a classic cozy mystery series. As snow falls on the steps of the New York Public Library, a line of cars moves sluggishly down Fifth Avenue. Oblivious to the traffic, a blue Chrysler roadster tears down the street, hops the curb, and slams to a halt. The car is empty; its driver thrown half a block back. He's stone dead, his cigarette still burning, and a noose tied tight around his neck. First on the scene is Detective Oscar Piper, followed closely by Hildegard Withers, a schoolmarm with more than a passing interest in crime. They are a close-knit pair and would have been married by now if murder didn't keep getting in the way. Piper and Miss Withers must race across New York, attempting to learn how a man can be hanged while driving and to do whatever it takes to keep his twin from suffering the same fate. Starring one of the world's shrewdest and most amusing detectives, The New York Times regarded by some as an American Miss Marple, Stuart Palmer's Hildegard Withers Mysteries will captivate readers of classic and cozy mysteries. Murder on Wheels is part of the

Hildegard Withers Mysteries which also includes The Penguin Pool Murder and Murder on the Blackboard
