Love Made Manifest:

Freedom Made Manifest Peter Joseph Fritz, 2018-12-12 Freedom Made Manifest explicates Rahner's theology of freedom by elucidating its configuration and sources. Much of its inquiry centers on the fundamental option each human person's eternal decision made paradoxically in time as a definitive answer to God's personally tailored call to salvation. This idea stems from three principal sources: Catholic conversations with transcendental idealist philosophy, penitential theology and practice, and Ignatian spirituality. Rahner's unique redeployment of these sources inflects the fundamental option with theologies of concupiscence, mercy, and forgiveness, especially as ecclesially mediated and devotion to Jesus Christ. Awareness of these inflections can show how Rahner's theology of freedom may assist in theological reflection on freedom's susceptibility to injury and trauma.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS COLLECTION Henry Harrison Brown, 2017-05-29 The concept of New Thought promotes the ideas that Infinite Intelligence or God is everywhere, spirit is the totality of real things, true human selfhood is divine, divine thought is a force for good, sickness originates in the mind, and right thinking has a healing effect. It is usually believed that God or Infinite Intelligence is supreme, universal, and everlasting, that divinity dwells within each person, that all people are spiritual beings, to heal oneself mentally and emotionally. Henry Harrison Brown, 1840-1918, was an Editor and publisher of NOW in the 1900s. He also served in U.S. Volunteers during Civil War from August 1862 until October 1865. He had already gained immense experience and reputation in mental healing and teaching since 1893, and his book Dollars Want Me published 1903 ran up to 30 editions in 1917.

George Townsend, 1825 How to Control Fate Through Suggestion Henry Harrison Brown, 1906 How to Control Fate Through Suggestion Henry H. Brown, 1996-09 1901 the science philosophy of life unity half science duality and fate Suggestion its place power Nature & Grace Matthias Joseph Scheeben, 2024-10-01 For Scheeben, our status as creatures means that not only all our actions but even our very existence from moment to moment depend on God, who as our loving Creator grasps us at the root of our being. This is radical dependence; it also means that we have certain duties toward God. Ultimately, the only proper posture we can adopt toward him is to bow our heads in profound humility before the one who has granted us participation in being from his infinite generosity. On a very practical level, this dependence means that our true exaltation can only come about through humble submission in love to him who made us. We do this through the handing over of our being to him in sacrifice, made possible by the sacrificial self-offering of Christ, just as true Aufklärung (enlightenment) can only come about by the sacrificium intellectus, the handing over of our intellect to the one who gives it back to us, divinized by the light of faith. Everything is ultimately grace, in that creation itself is absolutely gratuitous, a pure gift. But in God's providence, we stand in relation to God in distinct ways on account of his stupendous generosity and love. While everything is indeed grace, there is a double gratuity that marks the Christian life: the grace of creation and that of divine sonship. The whole point of distinguishing nature and grace lies precisely in preserving the supernatural splendor of this twofold gratuity, that is, in distinguishing the grace of the natural order from the grace of our supernatural participation in divine life. If we don't have a robust sense of the natural order, we won't see how transcendent the supernatural order truly is.
