LOVE ON THE SUPERTAX

BY
MARGHANITA LASKI

ILLUSTRATED BY
W. STEIN

*Over the blood and barren snow
A voice their name a-calling:
"Where are you going to, Tony O?
Where are you going this morning?"*

*"I am going where there are rivers of wine,
The mountains bread and honey;
There kings and queens do mind the ruine
And the poor have all the money."*

Love On The Supertax:

Love on the Supertax Marghanita Laski, 1946 Love on the Supertax Marghanita Laski, 1945 Look Who's Laughing Gail Finney, 2014-07-10 First Published in 1994 Look Who's Laughing belies the notion that in a joke the only place for a woman is in the butt Rather than analysing women's humor in isolation Gail Finney and twenty scholars map the terrain that the genders share and the areas that each hold exclusively Their essays investigate witty heroines sexual parodies domestic humor and romantic power They focus on comic drama and fiction stand up comedy cartoons and film describing the roles gender has played in the creation reception and interpretation of comedy from the sixteenth century to present They consider works by Shakespeare Oscar Wilde Zora Neale Hurston and Virginia Woolf whilst discussing characters such as V I Warshawski Molly Bloom and Elizabeth Bennet The book's emphasis on comedy's diverse sources uncovers critical prejudices and defines new contexts enabling men and women to understand more about each other's attitudes towards humor its means and ends The Richer, The Poorer Stewart Lansley, 2021-11-25 The Richer The Poorer charts the rollercoaster history of both rich and poor and the mechanisms that link wealth and impoverishment This landmark book shows how for 200 years Britain's most powerful elites have enriched themselves at the expense of surging inequality mass poverty and weakened social resilience Stewart Lansley reveals how Britain's model of extractive capitalism with a small elite securing an excessive slice of the economic cake has created a two century long high inequality high poverty cycle one broken for only a brief period after the Second World War Why he asks are rich and poor citizens judged by very different standards Why has social progress been so narrowly shared With growing calls for a fairer post COVID 19 society what needs to be done to break Britain's destructive poverty inequality cycle British Literature in Transition, 1940-1960: Postwar Gill Plain, 2019 Examines debates central to postwar British culture showing the pressures of reconstruction and the mutual implication of war and peace British Women Writers of World War II P. Lassner, 1998-03-01 In British Women Writers of World War II Phyllis Lassner offers a challenging analysis of politicized literature in which such British women writers as Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Stevie Smith and Storm Jameson debated the justness of World War II Lassner questions prevailing approaches to women's war writing by exploring the complex range of pacifist and activist literary forms of women who redefined such pieties as patriotism and duty and heroism and victimization Novelists Against Social Change Kate Macdonald, 2019-02-22 Novelists Against Social Change studies the writing of John Buchan Dornford Yates and Angela Thirkell to show how these conservative authors put their fears and anxieties into their best selling fiction Resisting the threats of change in social class politics the freedom of women and professionalization produced their strongest works Interwar Women's Comic Fiction Nicola Darwood, Nick Turner, 2020-01-10 This collection of essays examines the work of five intermodernist writers Some were established authors before the First World War and others continued to write after the Second World War but this book focuses particularly on their writing between 1918 and 1939 Elizabeth von Arnim Stella

Benson Bradda Field Ivy Compton Burnett Stella Gibbons and Winifred Watson had much in common they all wrote novels full of comic moments which often challenged the cultural politics of the interwar period Drawing on the literary and critical contexts of each novel the essays here discuss the use of comic structures that enabled the authors to critique the dominant patriarchal structures of their time and offer an alternative sometimes subversive view of the world in which their characters reside This book contributes to the growing scholarly interest in interwar fiction focusing principally on novelists who have fallen out of public view It widens our understanding both of the authors and of the continuing highly topical debate about interwar women novelists The History of British Women's Writing, 1920-1945 M. Joannou, 2016-01-03 Featuring sixteen contributions from recognized authorities in their respective fields this superb new mapping of women's writing ranges from feminine middlebrow novels to Virginia Woolf's modernist aesthetics from women's literary journalism to crime fiction and from West End drama to the literature of Scotland Ireland and Wales

Reading London in Wartime William Cederwell, 2017-11-06 Reading London in Wartime Blitz the People and Propaganda in 1940s Literature presents an expansive variety of writers and genres including non fiction and film approaches to build a comprehensive social picture of the atmosphere during wartime London From blitz and austerity to the nagging insistency of propaganda this volume examines the representation of London in wartime and early post war literature through each writer's unique perspective on the pressures of 1940s city life Exploring the use of London imagery this book considers how literature redirects attention to individual subjective experience at a time of enforced co operation uniformity and community Unlike government information films and news broadcasts which often used London to prop up prevailing clichés and stereotypes and encouraged patriotic support for the war literature had the freedom to express more recalcitrant truths London writing of the 1940s was not a literature of opposition or dissent but in offering more nuanced depictions of the period it was a counterweight to propaganda and the general war temperament In writing the city becomes a more complex place no longer the easy symbol of defiance and stoicism of the shared sacrifice of ration book and war work
