Creators Anita Silvey,1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children s literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations Grave Danger Rachel Grant,2013-05-21 Grant s experience as an archeologist makes Grave Danger come alive as the reader digs through rich details and a complex plot A great discovery Theresa Ragan New York Times Bestselling Author She s being stalked After struggling to recover from a career crippling mistake archaeologist Libby Maitland has landed the project of her dreams a data recovery excavation in a picturesque historic sawmill town Tasked with digging up secrets of the town s founding family Libby soon learns that nothing in Coho Washington is as idyllic as it seems She s barely settled into her new home when suspicious events make her believe she s being stalked Or maybe she s losing her mind Coho Police Chief Mark Colby can t decide if Libby is crazy or if she has her own twisted agenda but the deeper he delves into her past the more intrigued he becomes Even as he and Libby grow closer he can t quite let his initial suspicion go When Libby s life is threatened they must work together to determine if the truth about her stalker is buried in her past or if the answers can be found in the layers of the excavation Topics romantic mystery contemporary romance romantic suspense mystery hot romance women s romance action and adventure small town romance police chief hero alpha hero strong heroine scientist heroine archaeologist heroine stalker villain gaslight Native American prehistoric archaeology modern Native American tribe excavation buried secrets Rachel Grant Tracking the Skies for Lacy Steve Gladish,2018-10-19 It s the height of the Cold War The Air Force Sixth Weather Squadron Mobile chases tornadoes tracks weather systems and provides upper atmosphere weather data for dangerous South Pacific missile detonations What happens when love and other adventures enter the mix Sixth Weather warrior Luke LaCrosse roars into manhood by monitoring tornadoes and nuclear tests surviving a near fatal accident in Hawaii and flying Vietnam missions while seeking the lifelong love of high school sweetheart Lacy De Luca Tracking the Skies for Lacy follows their romantic obstacles family concerns military service distant locations to a

climactic river rafting trip Their navigation through a decade of challenges forms the beauty faith adventure and redemption that make Tracking the Skies for Lacy an engrossing and harrowing romantic adventure Zoom In, Zoom Out Sandra Barriaes-Bouche, Marjorie Attignol Salvodon, 2009-03-26 In the context of the transformations that Europe is undergoing Zoom in Zoom out Crossing Borders in Contemporary European Cinema attempts to serve as a testimony to the multiple ways in which European filmmakers are questioning the many borders of the continent European films have become a vital cultural space where the relationship between borders and identity is being renegotiated The films discussed here self consciously address the question of European identity while overtly crossing geographic cultural linguistic and aesthetic borders While all the articles explore the crossing of borders in Contemporary European films the volume maintains diverse themes and perspectives as subtopics It includes articles not only about films that deal thematically with border crossings but also articles that examine movies that cross borders in genres and techniques The articles have different theoretical approaches Film theory Cultural Studies History Sociology Philosophy and Psychoanalysis and cover films from well known cinematic traditions French Spanish German and Italian as well as lesser known cinematic traditions Yugoslavian Greek and Irish As a whole the essays frame the self conscious gesture by European filmmakers to define European cinema as a work in progress or at the very least as a project that like Europe itself raises as many questions as it answers This volume is a welcome addition to the growing critical literature on the evolution of the conception and practice of national cinema in Europe over the last two decades Sandra Barriaes Bouche and Marjorie Attignol Salvodon have chosen a solid selection of representative case studies that reflects different critical approaches to the problem of maintaining local or national cinema production in Europe during a period of intense globalization Their insightful introduction formulates the theme of unsettled borders and renegotiated identities that will resonate in the nine essays that follow With a focus on the critical concept of these unsettled borders the various authors explore the ways that the traditional mark of national space has been transformed through political and economic realignments as well as new technologies and the emergence of a new generation of filmmakers for whom national cinema no longer means what it did even twenty years ago The volume provides a good balance of critical approaches that includes auteur studies descriptions of state policies and the particular practices of filmmakers and producers in different parts of the continent Spain Germany Ireland the Balkans and finally useful appendices that provide a close up view of the complex nature of international co productions Marvin D Lugo Professor of Spanish Clark University This is an interesting collection of essays that has been well conceived and organised The standard of writing is high and I recommend publication I particularly commend the conceptual framework underpinning the volume This marries a cultural studies approach which still dominates the study of film in Area Studies and language departments across Europe and the US where filmic texts are increasingly used as teaching tools with the more industry based focus one tends to find adopted by Media and Screen Studies departments Thus this collection will appeal to a wide range of students and academics The introduction sets out the volume s overarching framework cogently and clearly giving a nuanced exploration of the way that the notion of the border can be used as a dynamic prism to help define and explore the limits of our understanding of Europe European identity and European culture within which cinema has long played a key role The editors give a good account for example of the way film has been employed as a space to explore the possibilities of European integration by EU politicians as well as highlighting the flaws inherent within this project They do however perhaps suggest a certain Western European North American centric view in their suggestion that the cinema of Yugoslavia Greece or Ireland is somehow less well known than other national and transnational cinemas explored here Less well known to whom However from the broad range of cinemas explored in the rest of the volume clearly this is not the case Particular high points for me are the chapters on the work of Fatih Akin by Janis Little Solomon and John Davidson s discussion of Schulze gets the Blues as well as Olivier Asselin s fascinating account of Database Cinema This will be a good addition to scholarship on European film and I look forward to receiving my copy Professor Paul Cooke University of Leeds European Visions Janelle Blankenship,Tobias Nagl,2015-07-15 This volume examines the challenges cinemas in small European countries have faced since 1989 It explores how notions of scale and small cinemas relate to questions of territory transnational media flows and globalization Employing a variety of approaches from industry analysis to Deleuze Guattari s concept of the minor contributions address the relationship of small cinemas to Hollywood the role of history and memory and the politics of place in post Socialist cinemas Book Review Digest ,1981 Transhuman Ben Bova,2014-04-15 Luke Abramson a brilliant cellular biologist who is battling lung cancer has one joy in life his ten year old granddaughter Angela When he learns that Angela has an inoperable brain tumor and is given less than six months to live Abramson wants to try a new enzyme Mortality Factor 4 MORF4 that he believes will kill Angela s tumor However the hospital bureaucracy won t let him do it because MORF4 has not yet been approved by the FDA Knowing that Angela will die before he can get approval of the treatment Abramson abducts Angela from the hospital with plans to take her to a private research laboratory in Oregon Luke realizes he s too old and decrepit to flee across the country with his sick granddaughter chased by the FBI So he injects himself with a genetic factor that will stimulate his body s production of telomerase an enzyme that has successfully reversed aging in animal tests As the chase weaves across the country from one research facility to another Luke begins to grow physically younger stronger He looks and feels the way he did thirty or forty years ago Yet his lung cancer is not abating if anything the tumors are growing faster And Angela is dying Star Chaser Rocky Martucci,2009-11 Blind Sight Meg Howrey,2012-09-04 Seventeen year old Luke Prescott has been brought up in a bohemian matriarchy surrounded by his divorced New Age mother his religious grandmother and two precocious half sisters He is writing his college applications when his father a famous television star invites him to Los Angeles for the summer Luke accepts and is plunged into a world of location shooting celebrity interviews glamorous parties and premieres But as he begins to know the difference between
