Lux Aeterna Organ Solo:

The Music of Joonas Kokkonen Edward Jurkowski, 2018-02-06 Joonas Kokkonen 1921 1996 has been one of the most performed Finnish composers during the past 25 years both within Finland and abroad The author's study of Joonas Kokkonen is the first full scale account in English Starting with a brief survey of Finnish music during the 20th century the book then devotes a separate chapter to each of the major genres in which Kokkonen composed symphonic orchestral vocal chamber and keyboard Illustrated with over a hundred music examples The Music of Joonas Kokkonen seeks to overturn his reputation in some quarters as a conservative even old fashioned composer and argues that Kokkonen created an interesting and refreshing approach to dodecaphonic composition and pitch organization With a full chronological listing of works and bibliography this book is the most important reference source to date on Kokkonen and his music Book Description One of the most performed Finnish composers during the last 25 years Joonas Kokkonen 1921 1996 was also instrumental in the development of the nation's system of music education In this study the author music U of Lethbridge Canada examines Kokkonen's compositions in each of five major genres symphonic orchestral vocal chamber and key Maurice Duruflé James E. Frazier, 2007 Drawing on the accounts of those who knew Duruflé personally as well as on Frazier's own detailed research this new biography offers a broad sketch of this modest and elusive man widely recognized today for having created some of the greatest works in the organ repertory and the masterful Requiem Frazier also examines the career and contributions of Duruflé's wife the formidable organist Marie Madeleine Duruflé Chevalier Catalogue of Music for Organ and Instruments James Laster, 2005 This book presents music titles in which the organ is part of a chamber ensemble Alphabetized by composer entries contain the bibliographical information for each title and a brief commentary or description as well as information on the level of difficulty timing mood fingerings pedalings and other performance aids The selections are suitable for concerts and religious services and are written in a variety of styles from Baroque to contemporary This catalogue will be of interest to church organists searching for a piece for organ and brass appropriate for Easter visiting instrumentalists choosing music for a Sunday service teachers introducing their organ students to the experience of accompanying a violin and instrumentalists seeking a composition to play with the organ among many others BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Dies Irae Robert Chase, 2004-09-08 Since time immemorial the response of the living to death has been to commemorate the life of the departed through ceremonies and rituals For nearly two millennia the Christian quest for eternal peace has been expressed in a poetic musical structure known as the requiem Traditional requiem texts among them the anonymous medieval Latin poem Dies Irae Day of Wrath have inspired an untold number of composers in different ages and serving different religions Western and Eastern This book the first comprehensive survey of requiem music for nearly half a century provides a great deal of diverse and detailed information that will be of use to the professional musician the musical scholar the choral conductor the theologian and liturgist and the general reader The main body of the guide is a description of some 250 requiems Each entry includes a concise biography of the composer and a description of the composition Details of voicing orchestration editions and discography are given An extensive bibliography includes dictionaries encyclopedias prayer books monographs and articles An appendix lists more than 1700 requiems not discussed within the main text

Benigno Zerafa (1726-1804) and the Neapolitan Galant Style Frederick Aquilina, 2016 This book is the first ever study of Malta's major eighteenth century composer Benigno Zerafa 1726-1804 a specialist in sacred music composition This book is the first ever study of Malta's major eighteenth century composer Benigno Zerafa 1726-1804 a specialist in sacred music composition Zerafa's large scale and small scale vocal and choral works mostly written during his long service as musical director at the Cathedral of Mdina have been winning increased recognition in recent years In addition to describing and analysing this extensive corpus the book gives an account of Zerafa's sometimes eventful career against the wider background of the rich musical and cultural life in Malta especial attention being paid to its strong links with Italy and particularly Naples where Zerafa was a student for six years It examines in detail the complex relationship of music to Catholic liturgy and investigates the distinctive characteristics of the musical style intermediate between baroque and classical in which Zerafa was trained and always composed one that today is commonly labelled galant Well stocked with music examples the book makes copious reference to Italian and Maltese composers from Zerafa's time and to modern analytical studies of Italian music from the middle decades of the eighteenth century thereby offering a useful general commentary on the galant period Its central aim however is to stimulate further interest in and revival of Zerafa's music To this end the book contains a complete work list with supplementary indexes Scholars and students of eighteenth century music in particular sacred music the galant style and Italian music will find it invaluable
