Sumerian Hymnology Mark E. Cohen, 1981-12-31 The ersemma is one of two possibly three genres of literature written in the Sumerian Emesal dialect. Texts exist in copies from the Old Babylonian period although they were authored much earlier. They were preserved likely because they were part of a fixed liturgy recited on select days of the month. Mark E. Cohen discusses the characteristics of this genre and its evolution, the circumstances of its composition and the cultic setting in which it was typically used. He also provides a catalog of examples as well as transliterations and translations of selected texts with commentary. Examples come from the British Museum, the Yale Babylonian Collection, the University Museum, the Oriental Institute, the Staatliche Museen Berlin, and the Metropolitan Museum. A Hittite Chrestomathy Edgar H. Judicial Decisions in the Ancient Near East Sophie Démare-Lafont, Daniel E. Fleming, 2023-11-03 This volume presents the first broadly inclusive collection with accessible text and English translation of documents related to judicial decisions in the ancient Near East, the oldest setting for such writing in the world. The texts in this volume belong to various genres, especially legal records and letters, and span almost two thousand years. With such varied material, the work depends on the expertise of specialists in each setting, from the Sumerian of early Ur to the late Akkadian of Babylonia under the Persians. The collection brings together not only 183 transliterated texts and new translations but also introductions and commentary that place these legal documents in their historical and social contexts. A glossary of legal terms, a concordance of texts included, and an index of legal terms makes this an invaluable tool for students and scholars across disciplines. The contributors are Dominique Charpin, Sophie D. mare Lafont, Daniel E. Fleming, Francis Joann s Bertrand, Lafont, Brigitte Lion, Ignacio M. rquez Rowe, C. ile Michel, and Pierre Villard. Complete Estonian Beginner to Intermediate Book and
