Macaronic Poetry James Appleton Morgan, 2018-01-12 Excerpt from Macaronic Poetry Collected With an Introduction The reader who cares to make a laborious study of the subject can find many sources of critical and bibliographical information In pref the pages following I have treated it as in deed the Macaronic should be regarded not as the literary folly of Mr Hallam but as simply the pastime and relaxation of learned minds and pretending to be nothing more Francis Mahoney was one of the most learned and able men Of his age a cardinal's hat was at his feet had he chosen to lift it But he preferred rather to keep his learning and ability to himself scattering what little he allowed to escape him in Sibylline leaves like those I have tied together in this book and achieving by the little he wrote what the younger Mr Weller pronounced to be the great art of letter writing making the people with that he had written more About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
