General MacArthur Speeches and Reports 1908-1964 , 2000-06-14 The two year search for General Douglas MacArthur s speeches and reports was truly a labor of love My Administrative Assistant Ellen Schaefer and I culled over 1 000 sources including memories biographies histories military magazines such as the Army and Air Force Journals unit histories commercial magazines and newspapers Magazines included such publications as National Geographic Life Magazine and many esoteric less circulated literature such as Military Magazine Retired Officers Magazine Air Force Magazine and so many others We received guidance and assistance from such sources as the U S Military Academy the Engineering School at Ft Leavenworth the Command and General Staff School at Leavenworth the Army War College the MacArthur Archives Director James Zobel the Library of Congress the War Department the sources seemed endless We do believe we were able to capture all the major public speeches and reports covering MacArthur s truly productive years from 1908 through 1964 Contains more than 125 speeches reports It will be interesting to note MacArthur established his personality early in his military career and never veered from this His admonition from his Mother when MacArthur was a student at West Point was never cheat never lie never tattle Adhering to this edict MacArthur offered to resign from the Academy rather than answer questions from the Academy panel investigating hazing and harassment by a group of fellow students MacArthur continued to develop his hard line against political and military intrigue by resolving to always do what he believed right even if he knew no one was watching Further he was determined never to refuse to carryout the order of a senior officer never be insubordinate to constituted authority

Frontline General: Douglas MacArthur Jules Archer, 2017-01-10 At twenty six Douglas MacArthur was military aide to President Theodore Roosevelt and his courageous leadership of the Rainbow Division in World War I made him a general. At the same time his reluctance to heed any authority but his own gained him a reputation of arrogance and insubordination that was to shadow his entire career. As MacArthur helped guide defeated Japan to democracy it was remarked that he himself tolerated no democratic questioning of his commands. When he was summoned from Japan to take command of the desperately beleaguered forces in Korea the conflict between duty and pride brought his career to a dramatic conclusion. With brilliant generalship he saved his army from defeat only to be removed from his post when he refused to obey the president himself. Douglas MacArthur's deeds were of heroic proportion but he is and will continue to be one of America's most controversial figures.

Collectively the reports have substantial and enduring value for military historians and students of military affairs providing an illuminating record of momentous events influenced in large measure by a distinguished Soldier and towering figure in American historiography. <https://history.army.mil>

A Soldier Speaks Douglas MacArthur, 1965 Public papers and speeches of Gen D MacArthur Representative Speeches of General of the Army Douglas MacArthur , 2001-01-01 Memorable Quotations from Public Statements By General MacArthur. I Shall Return. The well known words I shall return while not made in a public address by General MacArthur deserve mention here among some of the General's better and lesser known remarks. After leaving the Philippines March 12 1942 MacArthur made his way to Australia where he was pressed by reporters for a statement. He issued the following Statement: The President of the United States ordered me to break through the Japanese lines and proceed from Corregidor to Australia for the purpose as I understand it of organizing the American offensive against Japan a primary object of which is the relief of the Philippines. I came through and I shall return. MacArthur mentioned later that he made the famous remark casually enough but it became a psychological rallying point for the Filipinos and for many Americans. When American forces and MacArthur returned to the Philippines in October 1944 the General's first words spoken into a microphone were: People of the Philippines I have returned. By the grace of Almighty God our forces stand again on Philippine soil. It would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of the words I shall return and MacArthur's prestige with the Philippine people during the years 1942-44. For this book it was decided to include the compilation of the public addresses and in the case of each
