Macarthurs Children:

Some Early Records of the Macarthurs of Camden Elizabeth Macarthur Macarthur-Onslow, 1914 John Macarthur of Camden New South Wales introduced the merino sheep into Australia and founded the Australian wool trade Elizabeth

Macarthur's Letters Kate Grenville, 2022-03-29 Kate Grenville's collection of Elizabeth Macarthur's letters the inspiration for her bestselling award winning novel A Room Made of Leaves Colonialism and Nationalism in Asian Cinema

Wimal Dissanayake, 1994-10-22 an important collective work for communication practitioners students and scholars who want to have a deeper understanding of film making in Asia and of the promotion of nationalism through communication Media Asia a momentous contribution to the study of colonialism and postcoloniality in Asia The Journal of Asian Studies This is an excellent model for studies in how the popular art and experimental cinemas function in the consideration of nationhood as a configuration of symbols This anthology provides an interesting discussion by offering a theoretical framework from which to examine the complex topics of nation state identity formation and collective history in the realm of cinema It becomes an even more effective tool by playing itself out within a diverse Asian context Afterimage Essays examine the representation of the interlocking discourses of nationhood and history in Asian cinema dealing with film traditions in Japan China Taiwan Korea Vietnam Thailand Indonesia India Sri Lanka and Australia Legacies of the U.S. Occupation of Japan

Duccio Basosi, Rosa Caroli, 2015-04-01 Six decades after the end of the occupation of mainland Japan this volume approaches the theme of the occupation's legacies Rather than just being a matter of administrative practices and international relations the consequences of the US occupation of Japan transcended both the seven years of its formal duration and the bilateral relations between the two countries Rich with fresh analyses on a range of topics including transnational and comparative views on the occupation the influence of Japan on the United States as well as the reverse international perspectives on this odd couple and the memory of the occupation in both countries this book provides a greater understanding of the transtemporal transnational and transcultural legacies of one of the crucial events of the 20th century Revealing the Inner Worlds of Young Children Robert N. Emde, Dennis P. Wolf, David Oppenheim, 2003-09-25 This book reports the work of a 20 year collaboration between a multidisciplinary group of clinicians and developmental scientists who have created and investigated a new tool to elicit and analyze children's narratives This tool is the MacArthur Story Stem Battery a systematic collection of story beginnings that are referred to as stems These stems are designed to elicit information from children about their representational worlds This method is particularly exciting because using it allows developmental psychologists and others to gain information directly from children about their emotional states and what they are able to understand and in turn to use this information to explore significant emotional differences among children This work will appeal to researchers and practitioners in developmental and clinical psychology The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey, 2014-07-01 On

26 December 1900 the vessel Hesperus arrived at Eilean Mor in the remote Outer Hebrides with a relief lighthouseman and fresh provisions The lighthouse had been in operation for a year but it had been noted that no light had been seen from Eilean Mor for several days The relief keeper Joseph Moore found the lighthouse to be completely deserted and a subsequent search of the island failed to reveal any sign of what had happened to the three keepers The last entry in the logbook had been made on 15 December and contained a number of strange and distressing clues as to the mental states of the men One was reported to have been crying while another had become very quiet When it was revealed that the men s oilskin coats were missing and the clock in the lighthouse had stopped theories surrounding the keepers fates inevitably proliferated These included a giant wave washing them away murder or suicide Others favoured more esoteric explanations Eilean Mor was believed to have mystical properties In The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey explores this mysterious and chilling story in depth for the first time and reveals a shocking conclusion
