The Uncanny Child in Transnational Cinema Jessica Balanzategui,2025-10-01 The Uncanny Child in Transnational Cinema illustrates how global horror film depictions of children re conceptualised childhood at the turn of the twenty first century By analysing an influential body of transnational horror films largely stemming from Spain Japan and the US Jessica Balanzategui shows how millennial uncanny child characters resist embodying growth and futurity unravelling concepts to which the child's symbolic function is typically bound The book proposes that complex cultural and industrial shifts at the turn of the millennium resulted in these potent cinematic renegotiations of the concept of childhood By demonstrating both the culturally specific and globally resonant properties of these frightening visions of children who refuse to grow up the book outlines the conceptual and aesthetic mechanisms by which long entrenched ideologies of futurity national progress and teleological history started to waver at the turn of the twenty first century

The Oxford History of World Cinema Geoffrey Nowell-Smith,1996 Featuring nearly three thousand film stills production shots and other illustrations an authoritative history of the cinema traces the development of the medium its filmmakers and stars and the evolution of national cinemas around the world Live Flesh Santiago Fouz-Hernández,Alfredo Martínez-Exposito,2007-06-29 In post Franco Spain a re shaping of notions of the masculine has been under way for some time The authors of Live Flesh demonstrate how contemporary Spanish films during this modern period have contributed to this process They do so by visualizing the ways in which Spanish men have been abandoning old self images and adopting new ones and they explain and explore the complexity and diversity of these fresh cinematic creations of masculine identities The book's point of focus is Spanish films of the democratic period both popular and auteur made by directors of national and international prominence such as Pedro Almodovar Alejandro Amenabar Bigas Luna or Julio Medem as well as films featuring acclaimed actors who have contributed to the construction of contemporary ideas of the masculine in their country including Antonio Banderas and Javier Bardem Using a fresh theoretical framework embracing queer and feminist theory and concepts of nation race and class each chapter examines key films that represent the male body highlighting notable elements young muscular homosexual dis abled foreign and so on and goes on to focus on recent case studies from the early 1990s to the present An increasingly transnational Spanish cinema is a most promising field in which to explore questions of how male bodies are represented and mediated in film Live Flesh more than fulfils this promise and goes further to reveal how these representations have intervened in the Spanish cultural imagination
