A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters The Cry of An Occasion Richard Bausch,2002-03-01 This smorgasbord of literary offerings Publishers Weekly self selected by its contributors a long list of luminaries Library Journal includes works by Madison Smartt Bell Doris Betts Fred Chappell Ellen Douglas Shelby Foote George Garrett Allan Gurganus Barry Hannah William Hoffman Madison Jones Michael Knight William Henry Lewis Jill McCorkle Lewis Nordan Louis D Rubin Jr Lee Smith Elizabeth Spencer Walter Sullivan and Allen Wier All are affiliated with the Fellowship of Southern Writers organized in 1989 under the inspiration of the late Cleanth Brooks for the purpose of encouraging and honoring excellence in southern letters Each piece in The Cry of an Occasion celebrates the distinctness of southern experience giving expression in story form to a singular episode of mind heart or will Reading this exemplary collection is pure pleasure The Piano Tuner Peter Meinke,2012-03-15 In The Piano Tuner Peter Meinke writes of the foreignness that awaits us when we go abroad and when we answer our own front door to admit a stranger that confronts us in unfamiliar cities and villages and in the equally disquieting surroundings of our memories and regrets Often in these stories what seems a safe comfortable environment turns suddenly threatening In the title story a writer s quiet existence amid his antiques and books is dismantled piece by piece by a demonic beer bellied piano tuner In The Ponoos a man recalls how as a young boy living in Brooklyn during World War II he became a collaborationist in the brutal pranks of two Irish bullies In The Twisted River the sedate collegiality of a Polish university is disrupted when an American on a Fulbright grant attempts to blackmail two faculty members And in The Bracelet a young anthropology student doing field work in Africa finds herself drawn further and further into the role of a priestess of Oshun into a life dictated by the configuration of cowry shells cast upon the floor Meinke writes of a world where our control over our lives seldom exists across a border and often extends no further than our fingertips Attempts to bridge two cultures two lives are sometimes successful as when an actor finds love in the arms of a tough talking barmaid but more usually lead to disillusionment as when a hard drinking salesman's career is shattered after he is drunk under the table one night by a Polish engineer or when an English father struggles to find common ground with his American son Riveting almost terrifying the stories in The Piano Tuner tell of decent men and women caught in events that they could never have predicted would never have chosen

Heart Failure Ivy Goodman, 1983 These 15 stories meet existence head on through detached narration that has the quality of a feverish dream The chilling psyche tells a story where there seems to be no story Even the victim remains dispassionate and lets the reader infer causes and measure threats In unvarnished linear prose stripped of sentimentality Goodman casts the shape of inarticulate emotion Yet at the heart of her stories about the foolish the indifferent and the vicious between painful connections and violations there is regenerating laughter or an inexpressible trace of something once whole and beautiful Beneath Goodman's every absence there is a compelling disturbing presence Front flap
