Problems of Death, 1974 Problems of Death David L. Bender, 1981 Presents opposing viewpoints on euthanasia abortion suicide and funeral homes through essays by a variety of authors Includes discussion activities Problems of Death James D. Torr, 2000 Considers the following questions Is suicide immoral Should society condone physician assisted suicide Is abortion ethical Is capital punishment just Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Abortion-- Murder Or Mercy? François B. Gérard, 2001 This book is meant to provide an overview of and gather the literature on abortion one of the most divisive issues of our times Honest women and men the world over must deal with this issue in their hearts and minds whether or not they ever face the issue personally It is hard to conceive of a single thinking person who doesn't have an opinion on abortion usually strongly held The arguments are cogent on both sides of the issue We hope that this collection will bring to the attention of readers the publications which shed light on the fundamental issues involved Opposing Viewpoints

Sources Bruno Leone, David L. Bender, 1984 Ethnic Variations in Dying, Death and Grief Donald P. Irish, Kathleen F. Lundquist, Vivian J. Nelsen, 2014-01-02 This volume is directed towards professionals who work in the fields concerning death and dying These professionals must perceive the needs of people with cultural patterns which are different from the standard and dominant patterns in the United States and Canada Accordingly the book includes illustrative episodes and in depth presentations of selected ethnic patterns Each of the ethnic chapters is written by an author who shares the cultural traditions the chapter describes Other chapters examine multicultural issues and provide the means for personal reflection on death and dying There are also two bibliographic sections one general and one geared towards children The text is divided into three sections Cross Cultural and Personal perspectives Dying Death and Grief Among Selected Ethnic Communities and Reflections and Conclusions The book is aimed at those in the fields of clinical psychology grief therapy sociology nursing social and health care work Capital Punishment C. Cliff,2003 The issue of capital punishment is a continually debated issue because it calls into question the values and direction of society How is a civilisation supposed to handle lawbreakers Are some crimes so heinous and some people so dangerous that the death penalty is the only appropriate response The United States Constitution prohibits cruel and unusual punishment but opinions on whether that includes capital punishment are vehement on both sides Many states have some form of death penalty and public opinion seems to indicate support of it in principle However many firestorms have erupted recently over the application of the penalty including the topics of its use on minors and those with mental disabilities There are also questions raised about how much of a factor race plays in a capital sentence Internationally several countries have foresworn the death penalty with certain countries in Europe and the Americas refusing to extradite criminal suspects including suspected terrorists to the US if capital punishment is a possible sentence With such politically flammable and ethically challenging issues hanging over it capital punishment is a vitally important issue to understand To help facilitate that study this book assembles a carefully selected and substantial listing of literature focussing on the death penalty Anyone researching this area of criminal justice will find this book an important tool as it offers easy access to the most relevant works about capital punishment Following the bibliography further access is provided with author title and subject indexes The Craft of Dying, 40th Anniversary Edition Lyn H. Lofland,2019-04-23 The fortieth anniversary edition of a classic and prescient work on death and dying Much of today s literature on end of life issues overlooks the importance of 1970s social movements in shaping our understanding of death dying and the dead body This anniversary edition of Lyn Lofland s The Craft of Dying begins to repair this omission Lofland identifies critiques and theorizes 1970s death movements including the Death Acceptance Movement the Death with Dignity Movement and the Natural Death movement All these groups attempted to transform death into a positive experience anticipating much of today s death and dying activism Lofland turns a sociologist s eye on the era s increased interest in death considering among other things the components of the modern face of death and the craft of dying the construction of a dying role or identity by those who are dying and the constraints on their freedom to do this Lofland wrote just before the AIDS epidemic transformed the landscape of death and dying in the West many of the trends she identified became the building blocks of AIDS activism in the 1980s and 1990s The Craft of Dying will help readers understand contemporary death social movements historical relationships to questions of race class gender and sexuality and is a book that everyone interested in end of life politics should read Attitudes and Related Psychosocial Constructs Lewis Aiken,2002-02-12 In this work the author provides a compact but comprehensive research oriented treatment of attitudes and related psychosocial constructs values opinions beliefs and personal orientations Dying, Death, and Grief M. Humber,2013-03-09 In the past few years an increasing number of colleges and universities have added courses in biomedical ethics to their curricula To some extent these additions serve to satisfy student demands for relevance But it is also true that such changes reflect a deepening desire on the part of the academic community to deal effectively with a host of problems which must be solved if we are to have a health care delivery system which is efficient humane and just To a large degree these problems are the unique result of both rapidly changing moral values and dramatic advances in biomedical technology The past decade has witnessed sudden and conspicuous controversy over the morality and legality of new practices relating to abortion therapy for the mentally ill experimentation using human subjects forms of genetic intervention and euthanasia Malpractice suits abound and astronomical fees for malpractice insurance threaten the very possibility of medical and health care practice Without the backing of a clear moral consensus the law is frequently forced into resolving these conflicts only to see the moral issues involved still hotly debated and the validity of the existing law further questioned Take abortion for example Rather than settling the legal issue the Supreme Court s original abortion decision in Roe v Wade 1973 seems only to have spurred further legal debate And of course whether or not abortion is a morally acceptable procedure is still the subject of heated dispute Brain Death and Disorders of Consciousness Calixto Machado,D. Alan Shewmon,2004-03-31 Although some decades have passed there are still worldwide controversies about a concept of human death on neurological grounds There are also disagreements on the diagnostic criteria for brain death whether clinical alone or clinical plus ancillary tests Moreover some scholars who were strong defenders of a brain based standard of death are now favoring a circulatory respiratory standard The study of coma is extremely important because lesions of the brain are responsible for quality of life in patients or cause of death The main goal of Brain Death and Disorders of Consciousness is to provide a suitable scientific platform to discuss all topics related to human death and coma
