F. Aaron, Wayne Whipple, 2014-02-06 Come along Bill we ll have to get there or we won t hear the first of it Mr Gray said it would begin promptly at three I m doing my best Gus This crutch I know Climb aboard old scout and we ll go along faster The first speaker a lad of fifteen large for his age fair haired though as brown as a berry and athletic in all his easy deliberate yet energetic movements turned to the one he had called Bill a boy of about his own age or a little older but altogether opposite in appearance for he was undersized dark haired black eyed and though a life long cripple with a twisted knee as quick and nervous in action as the limitations of his physical strength and his ever present crutch permitted In another moment despite the protests of generous consideration for his chum s strenuous offer William Brown was heaved up on the broad back of Augustus Grier and the two cronies thus progressed quite rapidly for a full quarter of a mile through the residential section of Fairview Not until the pair arrived at the entrance of one of the outlying cottages did husky Gus cease to be the beast of burden though he was greatly tempted to turn into a charging war horse when one of a group of urchins on a street corner shouted Look at the monkey on a mule Texaco Topics ,1942 concert they caught another of those mysterious stuttering messages in the unmistakable voice of Dan Cassey Rice rats make hay was the substance of this message and the boys would have laughed if they had not been so dumbfounded What do you know about that gasped Jimmy That old boy sure has his nerve with him They re still hanging around here somewhere cried Bob excitedly They ve probably got a hiding place that even the police can t find Oh if we could only make sense of this exclaimed Herb staring at the apparently senseless message which he had written down If we only had their code the whole thing would be simple Oh yes if we only had a million dollars we d be millionaires retorted Jimmy scornfully Where do you get that stuff anyway Well said Bob temporarily giving up the problem as far as I can see all
