"This is a terrific book, crammed with indispensable information and inspiration for rag rug weavers."

—Johanna Erickson
Shuttle, Spindle & Dyepot

"It is a weaver's version of the parish cook-book, a homely, personal link with the past."

—Lynn Giles, Handwoven

"If I were asked to recommend just one book for someone about to weave rag rugs, beginner or otherwise, I would without hesitation choose Rag Rug Handbook. Janet and Paula communicate their knowledge and their enthusiasm in a straightforward and readable style. Their clear directions and careful explanations help the novice over the more intimidating aspects of setting up a loom for the first time, while their seasoned advice includes helpful hints for even the most experienced weavers."

—Lila Nelson,
Former Curator of Textiles
Vesterheim, The Norwegian-American
Museum, Decorah, Iowa

"A very fine book that combines the historical with the practical—setting a precedence I would like to see more craft books follow. You can teach yourself from it, and gain perspective . . . as well as a feeling of admiration for some of the hard-working men and women who wove rugs and made looms for their means of survival, and took great pride in their product."

—Janet DeBoer,
