are rather dated he said I love writing about personal experiences and the more I can get down on paper the better I ll like it although I m getting kind of old I guess for personal experiences Two chapters particularly amusing to Rae were written in recent years for a Canadian publication for which he once worked One concerns teaming up with a co worker who was a successful pool shark and the other involved meeting a young singer who became one of country music s most beloved stars I wrote two recollection columns for a former employer in Canada they were about getting in a pool tournament and making more money than I had selling newspaper ads and also my meeting with Harold Jenkins who would later change his name to Conway Twitty he said I love to do that kind of stuff I ve got a few of those in my background The book s final chapter was a column published in the Rockdale Citizen which by then had a companion paper in Newton County and the Gwinnett Daily Post on June 28 2006 the day he retired When asked if he had plans for any more books Rae said he s got something on the back burner that he might want to release One of my buddies in Canada who I grew up with is an author and makes a lot of money ghostwriting for Canadian politicians it seems like everybody in Canada wants to have a book out he said He suggested that I combine my love of cars and my love of music and do some kind of book about cars and songs I ve been thinking that might be a way to go It s been in the back of my mind One story that may well wind up in another book takes place during the time Rae managed a newspaper in the suburbs of Detroit and saw an up and coming performer that left an impression that remains today I ve never written about my times with Bob Seger when I worked in Pontiac Mich he said When I worked there every Friday we d go across the road to a bowling alley that had a lounge and the guy playing there was Bob Seger We d listen to him until they shut the bar down at 2 in the morning the whole newspaper used to come over and hear him perform
