City at the Center of the World Ernesto Capello, 2011-11-13 In the seventeenth century local Jesuits and Franciscans imagined Quito as the new Rome It was the site of miracles and home of saintly inhabitants the origin of crusades into the surrounding wilderness and the purveyor of civilization to the entire region By the early twentieth century elites envisioned the city as the heart of a modern advanced society poised at the physical and metaphysical centers of the world In this original cultural history Ernesto Capello analyzes the formation of memory myth and modernity through the eyes of Quito's diverse populations By employing Mikhail Bakhtin's concept of chronotopes Capello views the configuration of time and space in narratives that defined Quito's identity and its place in the world He explores the proliferation of these imaginings in architecture museums monuments tourism art urban planning literature religion indigenous rights and politics To Capello

these tropes began to crystallize at the end of the nineteenth century serving as a tool for distinct groups who laid claim to history for economic or political gain during the upheavals of modernism As Capello reveals Quito s society and its stories mutually constituted each other In the process of both destroying and renewing elements of the past each chronotope fed and perpetuated itself Modern Quito thus emerged at the crux of Hispanism and Liberalism as an independent global society struggling to keep the memory of its colonial and indigenous roots alive
