The Bounce in the Captain's Boots Jayne Fresina,2017-09-13 When Emma Chance met her best friend s elder brother she knew instantly that he needed somebody to put the bounce back in his boots But it couldn t be her of course She wouldn t know where to start Against the odds Emma Chance survived a childhood of cruelty and neglect She s never had time for fairytales or Prince Charming and as a young woman with a logical mind her preference is for tidy facts over messy feelings But with one glance from his dark eyes Captain Guy Hathaway causes poor Emma a bundle of the latter and turns her cautious world on its head To him she is nothing more than his little sister s shy awkward friend and she wouldn t know what to do with herself in any case if he ever looked at her as anything more than that But there s something about Captain Hathaway The charismatic captain has a reputation for trouble Brawls duels and dangerous women litter his past With a mischievous sense of humor a hot temper and a reckless impulse to leap in with both feet he has always sailed along at a steady clip determined never to be anchored too long in one place and never risking his heart But lately he s felt a strange emptiness a yearning for something he cannot identify It began a few years ago about the time he escorted his younger sister and two of her friends to a ball Did he lose something there or did he find it Until he gets to the bottom of this mystery he knows he won t be whole again In the meantime while he seeks out the source of this discontent he can make himself useful initiate some changes in his life and do a few good deeds for once Why not For instance timid plain little Miss Chance his sister s droopy best friend could surely benefit from a helping hand The first time he met her she was a mess of nerves covered in a red rash and itching as if riddled with fleas But he can t help feeling there is more to the strange creature than meets the eye Yes indeed there is something about Emma Chance

Strategies and Structure of the Luxury Clothing and Accessories Sector Mirela Orlovic,2003-07-04 Inhaltsangabe Introduction The luxury goods industry is a fascinating field As Jean Louis Dumas Herm s chairman and CEO of Herm s explains Le luxe c est cr er un r ve qui perdure In addition to the dream dimension that defies scientific analysis the luxury goods companies have kept highly secretive Alain D Perrin President and CEO at Cartier International elucidates One of our strengths is our ability to maintain a certain mystery about the economic entity which is the company We bring magic and dreams to consumers who don t want to see their favourite brands discussed in the media and lacking any sense of the romantic Systematic research confines itself mainly to specialised marketing literature especially that of French scholars But recent developments have raised various questions and call for more systematic research in diverse fields Over the past two decades luxury companies in particular in the clothing sector have had to face an increasingly turbulent environment On the supply side French dominance especially in the haute couture sector has been challenged as competition has increased mainly from Italian and American fashion houses Furthermore the traditionally fragmented luxury industry has become more concentrated a visible sign for the consolidation was the merger of Louis Vuitton and Mo t Hennessy in 1987 Finally as a result of diversification strategies most fashion houses have extended to more accessible luxury products and as a result realize now a substantial part of sales in both clothing and accessories But also the demand side has been substantially changing In 1899 the American economist Thorstein Veblen published the first proper study of consumerism in which he identified and analysed the traditional luxury customer group which he called leisure class It was not until the 1980s that the leisure class was joined by newly rich and occasional customers from the middle class On the one hand the luxury industry has expanded to more accessible products and to new geographical markets and on the other hand a growth in wealth of the Western industrialized nations has increased purchase of luxury goods These mostly fundamental changes have challenged and will furthermore challenge the fashion houses and the ability to establish a competitive advantage The objective of this thesis is gaining a thorough understanding of the luxury clothing and accessories sector by elaborating on
