Encyclopedia of Media and Communication Marcel Danesi,2013-06-17 The first comprehensive encyclopedia for the growing fields of media and communication studies the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication is an essential resource for beginners and seasoned academics alike Contributions from over fifty experts and practitioners provide an accessible introduction to these disciplines most important concepts figures and schools of thought from Jean Baudrillard to Tim Berners Lee and podcasting to Peircean semiotics Detailed and up to date the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication synthesizes a wide array of works and perspectives on the making of meaning The appendix includes timelines covering the whole historical record for each medium from either antiquity or their inception to the present day Each entry also features a bibliography linking readers to relevant resources for further reading The most coherent treatment yet of these fields the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication promises to be the standard reference text for the next generation of media and communication students and scholars

Novel Into Film Patricia J. Santoro,1996 The second chapter provides general background information on agrarian Spain the historical economic and ideological context of both La familia de Pascual Duarte and Los santos inocentes While in most cases the texts refer only obliquely to the reigning ideology that is responsible for the plight of the rural worker the history of the province of Extremadura where rural poverty is and was a social and economic phenomenon is crucial to the understanding of all four texts whose stories are set in this province

The Political Films of Andrzej Wajda Janina Falkowska,1996 Controversial painful stimulating and cinematically beautiful they never fail to fully engage the spectator This is particularly true for his major political films which form the basis of this study Applying Bakhtin s concept of dialogism the author shows how a creative interaction between the image on the screen and the viewer is established through Wajda s films

Modern Austrian Literature through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth,2012-01-01 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria s Nazi past Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis Five case studies approach canonical texts in post war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch Franz Innerhofer Gerhard Roth Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations concentrating on key areas of narratological concern plot narrative perspective authorship and post modern ontologies Setting the texts within the historical cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies

An Introduction to Literary Studies

Mario Klarer, 2023-07-31 The fourth edition of this classic beginner's guide to literary studies has been fully updated throughout Mario Klarer offers a concise and accessible discussion of central issues in English and world literature as well as film and television series Starting with the basics of what constitutes a literary text the book moves through an analysis of major genres important periods and key theoretical approaches to literature and film It also looks at the practicalities of finding and referencing secondary sources when writing a research paper The expanded new edition has been updated to include a wider range of examples from world literature cinema and television series additional references to contemporary streaming formats updated chapters on postcolonial theory cultural studies gender theory feminism and queer theory new sections on digital humanities ecocriticism literary translations and paratexts extended explanations of traditional genres e.g. the epic drama and poetry a completely revised chapter on the most recent MLA guidelines with rules for citing new media formats The detailed glossary ensures that the book is accessible to readers of any level making this an ideal self study guide or a course book for Introduction to Literature classes

Salvation from Cinema Crystal Downing, 2015-10-23 Salvation from Cinema offers something new to the burgeoning field of religion and film the religious significance of film technique Discussing the history of both cinematic devices and film theory Crystal Downing argues that attention to the material medium echoes Christian doctrine about the materiality of Christ's body as the medium of salvation Downing cites Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Hindu perspectives on film in order to compare and clarify the significance of medium within the frameworks of multiple traditions This book will be useful to professors and students interested in the relationship between religion and film

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs
