

SEMIOTICS

Semiotics is the study of signs. It is both the theory & analysis of signs & signifying practices.

Ferdinand de Saussure
(1857-1913)

Saussure was a French linguist that was one of the first to produce a semiotic theory during work in the early 1900's. Saussure stated that a sign is made up of two parts, the SIGNIFIER and the SIGNIFIED.

Charles Sanders Peirce, was an American philosopher that also formulated a semiotic theory around the same time as Saussure, the early 1900's. Peirce stated semiotics to be the relationship between a SYMBOL, ICON and an INDEX.

Charles Sanders Peirce
(1839-1914)

Müller, Olga Fischer, 2003 This volume a sequel to Form Miming Meaning 1999 and The Motivated Sign 2001 offers a selection of papers given at the Third International Symposium on Iconicity in Language and Literature Jena 2001 The studies collected here present a number of new departures Special consideration is given to the way non linguistic visual and auditory signs such as gestures and bird sounds are represented in language and more specifically in signed language and how such signs influence semantic conceptualization Other studies examine more closely how visual signs and representations of time and space are incorporated or reflected in literary language in fiction as well as experimental poetry A further new approach concerns intermedial iconicity which emerges in art when its medium is changed or another medium is imitated A more abstract diagrammatic type of iconicity is again investigated with reference to both language and literature some essays focus on the device of reduplication isomorphic tendencies in word formation and on creative iconic patterns in syntax while others explore numerical design in Dante and geometrical patterning in Dylan Thomas A number of theoretically oriented papers pursue post Peircean approaches such as the application of reader response theory and of systems theory to iconicity The Giallo Canvas Alexandra

Heller-Nicholas, 2021-01-22 Beloved among cult horror devotees for its signature excesses of sex and violence Italian giallo cinema is marked by switchblades mysterious killers whisky bottles and poetically overinflated titles A growing field of English language giallo studies has focused on aspects of production distribution and reception This volume explores an overlooked yet prevalent element in some of the best known gialli an obsession with art and artists in creative production with a particular focus on painting The author explores the appearance and significance of art objects across the masterworks of such filmmakers as Dario Argento Lucio Fulci Sergio Martino Umberto Lenzi Michele Soavi Mario Bava and his son Lamberto Aesthetic Approaches to Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05-12 As undergraduate and graduate courses in children's literature become more established and numerous there is an intense need for a textbook that offers aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children's literature This work fills that void by providing students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e.g. author genre character Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e.g. semiotics feminist psychoanalytic an example of its application to a literary text a number of activities study questions reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations
