Dreams of a Lifetime Karen A. Cerulo, Janet M. Ruane, 2022-06-21 How social status shapes our dreams of the future and inhibits the lives we envision for ourselves Most of us understand that a person's place in society can close doors to opportunity but we also tend to think that anything is possible when someone dreams about what might be Dreams of a Lifetime reveals that what and how we dream and whether we believe our dreams can actually come true are tied to our social class gender race age and life events Karen Cerulo and Janet Ruane argue that our social location shapes the seemingly private and unique life of our minds We are all free to dream about possibilities but not all dreamers are equal Cerulo and Ruane show how our social position ingrains itself on our mind's eye quietly influencing the nature of our dreams whether we embrace dreaming or dream at all and whether we believe that our dreams from the attainable to the improbable can become realities They explore how inequalities stemming from social disadvantages pattern our dreams for ourselves and how sociocultural disparities in how we dream exacerbate social inequalities and limit the life paths we believe are open to us Drawing on a wealth of original interviews with people from diverse social backgrounds

Dreams of a Lifetime demonstrates how the study of our dreams can provide new avenues for understanding and combating inequality including inequalities that precede action or outcome The Brunonian Brown University,1882 Dream Dutch Sheets,2012-04 Bestselling author helps readers recognize and live out God's dream for them making their lives count for him and giving them meaning and fulfillment Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1990-03 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics How to Make Your Dream Come Alive Delton Ellis,2004-12 In his latest book Delton Ellis expands on one simple principle you reap what you sow you can reach your dream by helping others to make their dreams come alive
