In Between Communication Theories Through One Hundred Questions Tomas Kačerauskas, Algis Mickūnas, 2020-03-02 This book takes the form of a dialogue It presents two authors specialized in the phenomenology posing questions to each other and offering complex answers for critical discussion The book includes both presentation of different communication schools and philosophizing on the issues of communication The authors debate numerous topics by providing the definition and etymology of communication examining the limits of communication and using a political base of communication The issue which pervades all domains is that of mediation how things such as identities styles and bodies are mediated by culture history and tradition and what the limits are of such mediation This question leads to more complex issues of mediated mediations such that an explication of one medium is framed by another medium leading to a question of meta language as a fundamental unmediated medium This involves some fine points of mediation perspectivity discursivity ethics of communication ideology private and public Throughout the mutual interrogative dialogue the authors touch upon but avoid the daunting commitment to a theory of metacommunication as well as the transcendental problematic of accessing the numerous theoretical thematic and historical aspects of communication The Works of Jonathan Edwards, Volume One

Metaphysics Adrian Pabst,2012-05-04 This book does nothing less than to set new standards in combining philosophical with political theology Pabst's argument about rationality has the potential to change debates in philosophy politics and religion from the foreword This comprehensive and detailed study of individuation reveals the theological nature of metaphysics Adrian Pabst argues that ancient and modern conceptions of being or individual substance fail to account for the ontological relations that bind beings to each other and to God their source On the basis of a genealogical account of rival theories of creation and individuation from Plato to postmodernism Pabst proposes that the Christian Neo Platonic fusion of biblical revelation with Greco Roman philosophy fulfills and surpasses all other ontologies and conceptions of individuality

Little Vast Rooms of Undoing Dara Blumenthal,2014-08-28 Public toilets are places where individual identity is put to the test through experiences of fear anxiety shame and embarrassment yet also places where we shore up confirm and check the status of our gendered identities In these highly gendered and sex segregated places people of various and varied identities come together and separately conduct their business through socially contingent toileting habits and behaviors Based on empirical research with men women gender non conforming and trans individuals who have a range of sexual identities Little Vast Rooms of Undoing attempts to understand a nearly universal aspect of daily life in the contemporary West Through a meditation on socially dictated practices and their associated emotions it argues that
