The Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar-wai Gary

Bettinson, 2025-03-20 The widely acclaimed films of Wong Kar wai are characterized by their sumptuous yet complex visual and sonic style Bettinson argues that Wong s films from Days of Being Wild and Chungking Express to In the Mood for Love and The Grandmaster are permeated by an aesthetic of sensuousness and disturbance achieved through techniques such as narrative disruptions jarring cuts the blocking of facial access and other complex strategies The effect is to jolt the viewer out of complete aesthetic absorption This tenth anniversary edition of The Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar wai includes a substantial new afterword bringing the story of Wong s career up to date including reflections on the mainland Chinese drama Blossoms Shanghai Bettinson revisits and extends the arguments of the first edition surveys the recent key debates on Wong s filmmaking and introduces fresh lines of critical investigation Gary Bettinson s Sensuous Cinema of Wong Kar wai is a major step forward in our understanding of this director Bettinson scrutinizes Wong s unique place in world film culture his unusual production methods and his debts to several cinematic traditions both Asian and European A close examination of Wong s style shows in unprecedented depth how these lyrical apparently loosely constructed films are underpinned by a strong formal and emotional coherence The result is an unequaled study of a filmmaker whose work from As Tears Go By to The Grandmaster has redefined contemporary cinema David Bordwell University of Wisconsin Madison Seldom has the sensuous been subjected to such a scientifically rigorous and yet moving account as Gary Bettinson s analysis of Wong Kar wai Chapter by chapter the logic of specific choices underpinning Wong s cinema produces a sense of revelation perfectly complementing the intense pleasures of watching the films In this second edition Bettinson focuses on the actor s work a stroke of genius for understanding an oeuvre where body language and gesture are so crucial Chris Berry King s College London In this essential study of acclaimed filmmaker Wong Kar wai Gary Bettinson exquisitely captures the director s cinematic sensorium and digs deep below a seductive visual surface to uncover a creative roughness that disturbs narrative and generic expectations Three cheers for this updated edition Gina Marchetti author of Citing China Politics Postmodernism and World Cinema

Sensuous Cinema Kaya Davies Hayon, 2018-08-09 Sensuous Cinema The Body in Contemporary

Maghrebi Film examines a cluster of recent films that feature Maghrebi French people and position corporeality as a site through which subjectivity and self other relations are constituted and experienced These films are set in and between the countries of the Maghreb France and to a lesser degree Switzerland and often adopt a sensual aesthetic that prioritizes embodied knowledge the interrelation of the senses and the material realities of emotional experience However despite the importance of the body in these films no study to date has taken corporeality as its primary point of concern This new addition to the Thinking Cinema series interweaves corporeal phenomenology with theological and feminist scholarship on the body from the Maghreb and the Middle East to examine how Maghrebi French people of different genders ethnicities

sexualities ages and classes have been represented corporeally in contemporary Maghrebi and French cinemas Via detailed textual and phenomenological analyses of films such as Red Satin Amari 2002 Exiles Gatlif 2004 Couscous Kechiche 2007 and Salvation Army Ta a 2014 Kaya Hayon Davies conveys the pivotal role that corporeality plays in articulating identity and the emotions in these films

Sound Design is the New Score Danijela Kulezic-Wilson, 2019-11-01 The practice of blurring the line between score and sound design has transformed contemporary film soundscape by challenging not only the long established hierarchical relationships between dialogue music and sound effects but also the modes of perception shaped by classical soundtrack practices The methods of this new trend rely on the language of contemporary popular and art music producing soundtracks in which it is difficult to tell the difference between score and ambient sound where pieces of electroacoustic music are merged with diegetic sound sound effects are absorbed into the score or treated as music and diegetic sound is treated as musique concrète In Sound Design is the New Score Kulezic Wilson explores theoretical aesthetic and sensuous dimensions of this new trend providing a multifaceted portrait of a practice which recognizes the interconnectedness of all soundtrack elements and emphasizes their inherent musicality The aesthetic concerns of this practice are illuminated through the concept of the aesthetics of reticence which rejects classical narrative and scoring conventions and uses integrated soundtrack strategies to create the space for mystery in art and for individuality in the cinematic experience The book's emphasis on sensuous and musical aspects of this practice informed by the feminist discourse on the erotics of art challenges popular notions about sensory cinema demonstrating that the sensuousness of film form and its soundscapes is more sophisticated than simply being the result of excessive sensory stimulation facilitated by the use of digital technology or the intensified aesthetics it inspires The discussion is supported by a wide range of case studies from American Independent Asian Australian and European cinemas including films by Shane Carruth Claire Denis Hou Hsiao Hsien Harmony Korine David Miché Gus Van Sant and Peter Strickland

Chinese Cinema Jeff Kyong-McClain,Russell Meeuf,Jing Jing Chang,2022-07-12 In Chinese Cinema Identity Power and Globalization a variety of scholars explore the history aesthetics and politics of Chinese cinema as the Chinese film industry grapples with its place as the second largest film industry in the world Exploring the various ways that Chinese cinema engages with global politics market forces and film cultures this edited volume places Chinese cinema against an array of contexts informing the contours of Chinese cinema today The book also demonstrates that Chinese cinema in the global context is informed by the intersections and tensions found in Chinese and world politics national and international co productions the local and global in representing Chineseness and the lived experiences of social and political movements versus screened politics in Chinese film culture This work is a pioneer investigation of the topic and will inspire future research by other scholars of film studies This edited volume offers a much needed account of alternative ways of envisioning Chinese cinema in the special context of China and the world Its vigorous theoretical framework which puts emphasis on interactions in the context of China and the world will complement and update publications in related areas Yiu Wai Chu The University of Hong Kong author of Main Melody Films Hong Kong Directors in Mainland China Chinese Cinema Identity Power and Globalization offers a collection of studies of modern Chinese films and their global connections with a contemporary emphasis Its authors insightful analyses of films famous obscure and new to the twenty first century screen elucidate numerous contextual factors relevant for understanding the history and aesthetics of Chinese cinemas Christopher Rea The University of British Columbia author of Chinese Film Classics 1922 1949 Rethinking the Novel/Film Debate Kamilla Elliott, 2003-08-07 Sample Text Women and Images of Men in Cinema Andreas Hamburger, 2018-05-08 Women and men in cinema are imaginary constructs created by filmmakers and their audiences The film psychoanalytic approach reveals how movies subliminally influence unconscious reception On the other hand the movie is embedded in a cultural tradition Jean Cocteau s film La Belle et la Bete 1946 takes up the classic motif of the animal groom from the story of Cupid and Psyche in Apuleius The Golden Ass originally a tale about the stunning momentum of genuine female desire liberates it from its baroque educational moral a girl s virtue and prudence will help her to overcome her sexual fears and turns it into a boyhood story inside the ugly rascal there is a good but relatively boring prince at least in comparison to the monsters of film history In the seventy years since it was made La Belle et la Bete has inspired numerous interpretations and has been employed by theorists of all genres and interests Interactive Cinema Marina Hassapopoulou, 2024-06-25 Connecting interactive cinema to media ethics and global citizenship Interactive Cinema explores various cinematic practices that work to transform what is often seen as a primarily receptive activity into a participatory multimedia experience Surveying a multitude of unorthodox approaches throughout the history of motion pictures Marina Hassapopoulou offers insight into a range of largely ephemeral and site specific projects that consciously assimilate viewers into their production Analyzing examples of early cinema Hollywood B movies museum and gallery installations virtual reality experiments and experimental web based works Hassapopoulou travels across numerous platforms highlighting a diverse array of strategies that attempt to unsettle the allegedly passive spectatorship of traditional cinema Through an exploration of these radically inventive approaches to the medium many of which emerged out of sociopolitical crises and periods of historical transition she works to expand notions of interactivity by considering it in both technological and phenomenological terms. Deliberately revising and expanding Eurocentric scholarship to propose a much broader transnational scope, the book emphasizes the ethical dimensions of interactive media and their links to larger considerations around community building, citizenship, and democracy. By combining cutting edge theory with updated conventional film studies methodologies, Interactive Cinema presses at the conceptual limits of cinema and offers an essential road map to the rapidly evolving landscape of contemporary media.

Bodies in Pain Tarja Laine, 2017-04 The films of Darren Aronofsky invite emotional engagement by means of affective resonance between the film and the spectator's lived body. Aronofsky's films, which include a rich range of production from Requiem for a Dream to Black Swan, are often considered cerebral because they explore topics like mathematics, madness, hallucinations, obsessions, social anxiety, addiction, psychosis, schizophrenia, and neuroscience. Yet this interest in intelligence and mental processes is deeply embedded in the operations of the body, shared with the spectator by means of a distinctively corporeal audiovisual style. Bodies in Pain looks at how Aronofsky's films engage the spectator in an affective form of viewing that involves all the senses, ultimately engendering a process of self-reflection through their emotional dynamics.

Endangering Science Fiction Film Sean Redmond, Leon Marvell, 2015-06-26 Endangering Science Fiction Film explores the ways in which science fiction film is a dangerous and endangering genre. The collection argues that science fiction's cinematic power rests in its ability to imagine other worlds that challenge and disturb the lived conditions of the real world as it is presently known to us. From classic films such as 2001: A Space Odyssey and Solaris to modern blockbusters including World War Z and Gravity, and directors from David Cronenberg to Alfonso Cuarón, contributors comment on the way science fiction film engages with dangerous encounters, liminal experiences, sublime aesthetics, and untethers space and time to question the very nature of human existence. With the analysis of a diverse range of films from Europe, Asia, North, and South America, Endangering Science Fiction Film offers a uniquely interdisciplinary view of the evolving and dangerous sentiments and sensibility of this genre.
