Sentimental Notion:

The Sentimental Education of the Novel Margaret Cohen, 2018-06-05 The nineteenth century French novel has long been seen as the heroic production of great men who confronted in their works the social consequences of the French Revolution And it is true that French realism especially as developed by Balzac and Stendhal was one of the most influential novelistic forms ever invented Margaret Cohen however challenges the traditional account of the genesis of realism by returning Balzac and Stendhal to the forgotten novelistic contexts of their time Reconstructing a key formative period for the novel she shows how realist codes emerged in a hostile take over of a prestigious contemporary sentimental practice of the novel which was almost completely dominated by women writers Cohen draws on impressive archival research resurrecting scores of forgotten nineteenth century novels to demonstrate that the codes most closely identified with realism were actually the invention of sentimentality a powerful aesthetic of emerging liberal democratic society although Balzac and Stendhal trivialized sentimental works by associating them with frivolous women writers and readers Attention to these gendered struggles over genre explains why women were not pioneers of realism in France during the nineteenth century a situation that contrasts with England where women writers played a formative role in inventing the modern realist novel Cohen argues that to understand how literary codes respond to material factors it is imperative to see how such factors take shape within the literary field as well as within society as a whole The book also proposes that attention to literature as a social institution will help critics resolve the current vital question of how to practice literary history in the wake of poststructuralism

Looking upon the Heart Pete Carlson, MFT, 2020-06-09 BY LOOKING UPON THE HEART WE CAN ALL BE CHANGED IN AN INSTANT AND LIVE LIFE MORE ABUNDANTLY The mystery of the biblical heart is unveiled by integrating psychology and Scripture to delineate the five dispositions of the heart the choice of which we morph into could either enhance or hinder the attainment of abundant life in Christ Throughout time people have been searching for the meaning of life and the way to find fulfillment It is the intention of this book to show how by Looking upon the Heart where Jesus may live we can actualize healing and holiness at any moment in time In this in depth Christian psychology and self help textbook the reader is enlightened as to what good and bad choices we can make about our character and personality the goal is to consistently be transformed morphed out of the unhealthy dispositions of the heart the broken heart and the hard heart into healthier ones the open heart sweet heart and the brave heart Our first basic premise is that we all believers and unbelievers alike can and do spontaneously morph continually in and out of various dispositions character states and personality styles and so are capable of immediate transformation The second premise is that grace must prevail we all would be hypocrites if we judged because we are all morphing having our good moments and bad at any particular moment in real time Ultimately the overall perspective is that the heart should be the most important human entity known to man The heart is the primary gatekeeper and decision maker and therefore the overall determiner of the whole person s behavior personal growth and spiritual maturity We are to embrace a complete understanding of the biblical heart its five dispositions in order to overcome psychological behavioral and relational dysfunction and sin Only then can we successfully and consistently experience oneness with God through Jesus living and actively operating within our hearts As a result of Looking upon the Heart the Lord reigns and leads us to a life of victory in Jesus

Jewish Marriage in Antiquity Michael L. Satlow,2018-06-05 Marriage today might be a highly contested topic but certainly no more than it was in antiquity Ancient Jews like their non Jewish neighbors grappled with what have become perennial issues of marriage from its idealistic definitions to its many practical forms to questions of who should or should not wed In this book Michael Satlow offers the first in depth synthetic study of Jewish marriage in antiquity from ca 500 B C E to 614 C E Placing Jewish marriage in its cultural milieu Satlow investigates whether there was anything essentially Jewish about the institution as it was discussed and practiced Moreover he considers the social and economic aspects of marriage as both a personal relationship and a religious bond and explores how the Jews of antiquity negotiated the gap between marital realities and their ideals Focusing on the various experiences of Jews throughout the Mediterranean basin and in Babylonia Satlow argues that different communities even rabbinic ones constructed their own Jewish marriage they read their received traditions and rituals through the lens of a basic understanding of marriage that they shared with their non Jewish neighbors He also maintains that Jews idealized marriage in a way that responded to the ideals of their respective societies mediating between such values as honor and the far messier realities of marital life Employing Jewish and non Jewish literary texts papyri inscriptions and material artifacts Satlow paints a vibrant portrait of ancient Judaism while sharpening and clarifying present discussions on modern marriage for Jews and non Jews alike The Literary Channel Margaret Cohen,Carolyn Dever,2009-02-14 The Literary Channel defines a crucial transnational literary zone that shaped the development of the modern novel During the first two centuries of the genre s history Britain and France were locked in political economic and military struggle The period also saw British and French writers critics and readers enthusiastically exchanging works codes and theories of the novel Building on both nationally based literary history and comparatist work on poetics this book rethinks the genre s evolution as marking the power and limits of modern cultural nationalism In the Channel zone the novel developed through interactions among texts readers writers and translators that inextricably linked national literary cultures It served as a forum to promote and critique nationalist clich s whether from the standpoint of Enlightenment cosmopolitanism the insurgent nationalism of colonized spaces or the non nationalized culture of consumption In the process the Channel zone promoted codes that became the genre s hallmarks including the sentimental poetics that would shape fiction through the nineteenth century Uniting leading critics who bridge literary history and theory The Literary Channel will appeal to all readers attentive to the future of literary studies as well as those interested in the novel s development British and French cultural history and extra national patterns of cultural exchange Contributors include April Alliston Emily Apter Margaret Cohen Joan DeJean Carolyn Dever Lynn Festa Fran oise Lionnet Deidre Shauna Lynch Sharon Marcus Richard Maxwell and Mary Helen McMurrin Feminism Confronts Homo Economicus Martha Fineman,Terence Dougherty,2018-08-06 The essays in this volume confront the inroads that economics has made into the legal academy Law and Economics uses principles of neoclassical economics to develop laws and social policies that maintain if not bolster current allocations of power from the Introduction The Law and Economics school has had a significant impact on the legal and governmental landscape in the United States It posits a perfectly rational economic man homo economicus who is unconstrained by familial and communal ties and who can and should make decisions solely in light of considerations of economic value Feminism Confronts Homo Economicus offers a major intervention in debates about how law has come under the influence of economic principles Drawing on the latest thinking in the fields of feminist legal theory critical legal studies and feminist economics the essays critique the notion that legal and policy decisions should be made solely through the lens of economics While the contributors question the wholesale incorporation of the neoclassical economic model into legal analysis they do not all discard economic analysis and theory Situated at the intersection of feminism law and economics Feminism Confronts Homo Economicus will appeal to scholars and students of these disciplines as well as policy analysts and social theorists interested in family education labor and welfare Children, Rights and Modernity in China O. Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10 Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena You Matter More Than You Think

Leslie Parrott, 2010-11-29 Am I making a difference Does my life matter How can I make a difference when some days I can't even find my keys asks award winning author Leslie Parrott I've never been accused of being methodical orderly or linear So when it came to considering my years on this planet I did so without a sharpened pencil and a pad of paper Instead Precarious Passages Tuire Valkeakari, 2022-06-28 Precarious Passages unites literature written by members of the far flung Black Anglophone diaspora Rather than categorizing novels as simply African American Black Canadian Black British or postcolonial African Caribbean this book takes an integrative approach it argues that fiction creates and sustains a sense of a wider African diasporic community in the Western world Tuire Valkeakari analyzes the writing of Toni Morrison Caryl Phillips Lawrence Hill and other contemporary novelists of African descent She shows how their novels connect with each other and with defining moments in the transatlantic experience most notably the Middle Passage and enslavement The lives of their characters are marked by migration and displacement Their protagonists yearn to experience fulfilling human connection in a place they can call home Portraying strategies of survival adaptation and resistance across the limitless varieties of life experiences in the diaspora these novelists continually reimagine what it means to share a Black diasporic identity EBOOK: Suicide - The Ultimate Rejection? N/A Pritchard, 1995-10-16

Suicide The Ultimate Rejection is an interdisciplinary text based on Colin Pritchard's first hand experience both as a practising psychiatric social worker and social researcher It provides an analysis of current research on suicide exploring possible causes and how best to intervene and makes the case for a science based practice art International rates of suicide are examined as the author looks at suicide in a cross cultural context showing how it is differently understood in different ethnic groups reflecting various degrees of stigma He argues for greater recognition of these key differences between cultures and ethnic groups and shows how important they can be to our understanding and intervention Suicide The Ultimate Rejection explores the concepts of prediction and prevention and asks how the current health and community services might work to reduce the number of suicides in line with the targets set by the government's Health of the Nation Different approaches to intervention and treatment are considered with emphasis on those which research has shown to be the most promising Special attention is given to the families of the victim and in the final pages a wider view of suicide which includes euthanasia is explored Using new research Colin Pritchard examines the practical and moral issues raised by euthanasia Suicide will be of interest to students of social work psychiatric nursing health visiting and medicine as well as health professionals and counsellors

Soundings in French Caribbean Writing Since 1950 Mary Gallagher, 2002-11-07 Over the second half of the twentieth century a substantial flow of writing emerged from the French held Caribbean Much of this work is both theoretically knowing and poetically potent and has attracted international attention to the literary resonances of the uniquely complex geo historical situation of the Caribbean and indeed of the Americas in general Much of its passion pertinence and appeal inheres in its approach to time and to space an approach still reverberating with the shock of displacement and its various after tremors an exploded sense of diversity radical relativization the profound expropriations of enslavement colonial erosion Through readings of high profile as well as lesser known writing this book tracks some of the more striking tensions and tropisms at work in the French Caribbean imagination of space and time and their intersection It studies generic interplay textual palimpsest narrative structure and other dynamics of writing that realize and manipulate the intersections of time and space history and memory writing and rewriting voice and text referential space and inter textual space as well as cultural theory and literary practice identity and difference place and displacement In this way it probes both the strains and the stresses and also the insights and gravitations that make for the particular French Caribbean timbre of this volume of writing This specific vibration while illuminating Caribbean New World and post colonial thinking in general also encourages wider reflection on global resonances of displacement and dislocation and on more general issues such as the role of writing and of narrative in particular in the confrontation of absence and presence loss and desire distance and diversity This book locates the problematic of time space in relation to historiographical geo cultural and phenomenological thinking and it also takes account of the detonation of critical interest in what is broadly termed post colonial writing Its fundamental concern however is to show how a particular corpus of writing has in the space of half a century and from a bracing position of hyper relationality responded imaginatively and poetically to the challenge of envisioning place and of relating space to time

The Toscanini Mystique Kenneth A. Christensen,2014-10-31 Kenneth A Christensens THE TOSCANINI MYSTIQUE is the first full length biography about the legendary Italian conductors life and career in almost thirty five years Maestro Toscanini had a frigid and extremely unhappy childhood along with a severe musical education at the Parma Conservatory This unglamorized account of a gifted teenagers professional conducting debut at Rio de Janerios Teatro Imperial is told as it really happened Toscanini was married to a ballerina Carla De Martini who bore him four children but also had an illegitimate son with a gifted soprano who was born retarded Toscaninis vulgar mistreatment of nearly all the singers and musicians who performed under his direction was legendary and is examined with unusual insight about his uncanny memory and talent for musical recreation The recollection of many famous artists including Caruso Debussy Kreisler Puccini Stravinsky Verdi and Wagners descendants are quoted alongside his confrontations with Hitler Mussolini and the Sicilian mafia But the Maestro also was the most generous of all musicians donating both his time and talents to many worthwhile charities for which he received no financial compensation The life of this great conductor is presented as the struggles of a musical and theatrical reformer who was a major historical figure that just happened to be one of the greatest musicians who ever lived Mr Christensen has painstakingly wrote his narrative using all the previous biographies and magazine articles on his life the scripts of two video documentaries and the liner notes for the most widely available re releases of his recordings He rewrote and clarified the awkward original Italian translations for non specialist readers and has supplied new English translations for the numerous operatic titles and other musical works as well as all the foreign language newspapers magazines and theatres mentioned in the text In addition he has provided professional critiques on the most widely available Toscanini recordings from RCA Victors Arturo Toscanini

Collection and historic reissues of Toscanini's NBC radio broadcast concerts. Here was a man who had the nerve to stand up to world dictators and fought hard to prevent the Western world's supreme musical masterpieces from being abused and mistreated but without taking any credit for laboriously recreating all these composers' inspiration. He enjoyed to play practical jokes on his family and friends but this humorous side is known only through letters because Toscanini never published any autobiography or memoirs about his art. Toscanini gave the world premieres of 14 operas including Leoncavallo's Pagliacci and three by Puccini including La Bohème, La Fanciulla del West, and Turandot. Toscanini served as musical director of the Teatro Regio in Turin 1895-98, La Scala in Milan 1898-1908, New York's Metropolitan Opera 1908-1915, barely missed dying upon the Lusitania becoming musical director of La Scala again 1920-1929, the New York Philharmonic 1926-1936, and the NBC Symphony Orchestra 1937-1954. In between he also guest conducted at the Bayreuth, Salzburg, and Lucerne Festivals and conducted the inaugural concerts of the Palestine Symphony. Toscanini then recorded his most important repertory with the BBC Symphony and the Philadelphia Orchestra, the New York Philharmonic, and NBC Symphony Orchestras alongside the Robert Shaw Chorale and such esteemed soloists as Jascha Heifetz, Rudolf Serkin, plus his own son-in-law Vladimir Horowitz. His seven operatic recordings featured Jan Peerce, Helen Traubel, Richard Tucker, Giuseppe di Stefano, Rose Bampton, Cesare Siepi, Herva Nelli, Licia Albanese, Robert Merrill, Jussi Björling, Lauritz Melchior, and many other gifted singers and musicians of the past whose names alone are too much to mention.
