Essay Cinema in the Digital Era James Slaymaker,2024-11-28 This book explores the impact of digital technology on the essay film in the early 21st century arguing that the cinematic essay has been associated with technological evolution throughout its history The author considers the output of four towering figures in essay filmmaking Harun Farocki Chris Marker Chantal Akerman and Jean Luc Godard and explores the ways in which these directors utilise aesthetic strategies editing techniques and modes of spectatorial address that are rooted in the capabilities of digital technologies Slaymaker conceptualises the cinematic essay as a self reflexive mode of nonfiction cinema one that foregrounds the filmmaking apparatus and the act of its own making and which thereby launches an inquiry into the ontological nature of the cinematic image the tools which construct it and the wider artistic landscape in which it is embedded Television News Teresa Keller,2019-04-18 Television News is a comprehensive resource for newswriting reporting shooting and editing video and producing a newscast This book provides instruction in the basic steps of telling video stories and is perfectly suited for preparing young professionals for entry level positions as television or multimedia journalists Moreover the text goes to the heart of storytelling with guidance appropriate for advancement in an industry that is challenged more than ever to retain the public trust The reporting and video storytelling skills found in this book can also be applied in non traditional video communication jobs in both businesses and nonprofits Conversational and easy to understand this book grounds readers in the ethical and legal consideration necessary to do the job right New to the fourth edition is coverage of social media shooting and broadcasting with cell phones and a discussion of fake news This book can be used in standalone introductory broadcast courses or across multiple specialized modules It features a website with ancillary material that helps students learn to write shoot and edit video with practical activities A Cruel Theatre of Self-Immolations Grzegorz

Ziółkowski,2020-02-13 A Cruel Theatre of Self Immolations investigates contemporary protest self burnings and their echoes across culture The book provides a conceptual frame for the phenomenon and an annotated comprehensive timeline of suicide protests by fire supplemented with notes on artworks inspired by or devoted to individual cases The core of the publication consists of six case studies of these ultimate acts augmented with analyses and interpretations hailing from the visual arts film theatre architecture and literature By examining responses to these events within an interdisciplinary frame Zi kowski highlights the phenomenon s global reach and creates a broad yet in depth exploration of the problems that most often prompt these self burnings such as religious discrimination and harassment war and its horrors the brutality and indoctrination of authoritarian regimes and the apathy they produce as well as the exploitation of the so called subalterns and their exclusion from mainstream economic systems Of interest to scholars from an array of fields from theatre and performance to visual art to religion and politics A Cruel Theatre of Self Immolations offers a unique look at voluntary demonstrative and radical performances of shock and subversion Real Wars on Virtual Battlefields Stefan

Werning,2015-07-15 The book analyzes the multifarious exchange of algorithmic technologies and concepts between the military and the media industry from the early 1990s until now Unlike most related scholarly work which focuses on digital games it drafts a model of programmable media which is grounded in a close reading of the key technologies most notably the paradigm of object oriented programming and reconsiders technical disciplines from a humanities perspective This model is then applied to analyze the effects of algorithmic logic on the military civilian continuum including economic practices patterns of media usage and military decision making
