Sequins for a ragged hen ,      Sequins for a Ragged Hem Amryl Johnson,2022-02-03 A beautifully atmospheric memoir and travelogue from poet Amryl Johnson depicting her journey from the UK to Trinidad in the 1980s Memories demanded that I complete this book If what I experienced was in fact a haunting I believe I have now laid these ghosts to rest in a style which I hope will satisfy even the most determined ones Amryl Johnson came to England from Trinidad when she was eleven As an adult in 1983 ready for a homecoming she embarks on a journey through the Caribbean searching for home searching for herself Landing in Trinidad as carnival begins she instantly surrenders to the collective pulsating rhythm of the crowd euphoric in her total freedom This elation is shattered when she finds the house where she was born has been destroyed She cannot escape nor wants to from the inheritance of colonialism Her bittersweet welcome sets the tone for her intoxicating exploration of these distinct islands In evocative lyrical prose Sequins for a Ragged Hem is an astonishingly unique memoir interrogating the way our past and present selves live alongside one another Selected by Booker Prize winning author Bernardine Evaristo this series rediscovers and celebrates pioneering books from Black Britain and the diaspora which remap the nation and reframe our history      Sequins for a Ragged Hem Estate of Amryl Johnson,2022-09-27 A beautifully atmospheric memoir and travelogue from poet Amryl Johnson depicting her journey from the UK to Trinidad in the 1980s Memories demanded that I complete this book If what I experienced was in fact a haunting I believe I have now laid these ghosts to rest in a style which I hope will satisfy even the most determined ones Amryl Johnson came to England from Trinidad when she was eleven As an adult in 1983 ready for a homecoming she embarks on a journey through the Caribbean searching for home searching for herself Landing in Trinidad as carnival begins she instantly surrenders to the collective pulsating rhythm of the crowd euphoric in her total freedom This elation is shattered when she finds the house where she was born has been destroyed She cannot escape nor wants to from the inheritance of colonialism Her bittersweet welcome sets the tone for her intoxicating exploration of these distinct islands In evocative lyrical prose Sequins for a Ragged Hem is an astonishingly unique memoir interrogating the way our past and present selves live alongside one another Selected by Booker Prize winning author Bernardine Evaristo this series rediscovers and celebrates pioneering books from Black Britain and the diaspora which remap the nation and reframe our history      Caribbean-English Passages Tobias Döring,2003-08-29 Tobias Döring uses Postcolonialism as a backdrop to examine and question the traditional genres of travel writing nature poetry adventure tales autobiography and the epic assessing their relevance to and modification by the Caribbean experience Caribbean English Passages opens an innovative and cross cultural perspective in which familiar oppositions of colonial white versus postcolonial black writing are deconstructed English identity is thereby questioned by this colonial contact and Caribbean English writing radically redraws the map of world literature This book is essential reading for students of Postcolonial Literature at both undergraduate and postgraduate level      With Open Eyes

,2023-12-18 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print

In Praise of New Travelers Isabel Hoving,2001 Approaching postcolonial theory through cultural analysis this book offers an accessible and concrete appraisal of current developments in postcolonial criticism Detailed readings of a range of Anglophone Caribbean migrant women's texts from the late 1980s and 1990s lead to sharp insights into three issues that are crucial to an understanding of the field place voice and silence The discussion of these issues allows us to trace current feminist postmodern and postcolonial debates about the nature of the speaking subject as it is emerging from today's postcolonial cultural practices Postcolonial criticism often understands this subject as hybrid and multiple This book shows how the specifics of this multiplicity must be acknowledged through analysis of the power structures and the violence through which this multiple subject is established The book is also a consistent inquiry into reading positions The argument about the differences between postcolonialist black and Caribbean feminist white feminist and postmodern criticism is conducted as a discussion about the effects insights and blindnesses produced by these different ways of reading Caribbean migrant women's writing Scrutinizing the grain of these texts encourages us to move beyond the kind of general statements for which postcolonial theory has been severely criticized The author also extends her critique of reading positions to issues of methodology using these approaches to direct her interpretation Narratology is supplemented by an analysis of the interdiscursive processes through which texts are created and psychoanalytic concepts are used to explore the ambiguous merits of postcolonial reading Above all In Praise of New Travelers celebrates the vigorous subversive and liberating creativity of an accomplished generation of Caribbean migrant women writers

Culture Wars in British Literature

Tracy J. Prince,2012-09-21 The past century's culture wars that Britain has been consumed by but that few North Americans seem aware of have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo English interpretation of British literature Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs British identity some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland England Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain in debates over immigration race ethnicity class and gender and in arguments over British literature These debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U S and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain s changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British literature

Contemporary British Poetry James Acheson, Romana Huk, 1996-09-12 Devoted to close readings of poets and their contexts from various postmodern perspectives this book offers a wide ranging look at the work of feminists and post feminist poets working class poets and poets of diverse cultural backgrounds as well as provocative re readings of such well established and influential figures as Donald Davie Ted Hughes Geoffrey Hill and Craig Raine Contributors include many respected theorists and critics such as Antony Easthope C L Innes John Matthias Edward Larrissy Linda Anderson Eric Homberger Alastair Niven R K Meiners and Cairns Craig in addition to new writers working from new theoretical perspectives Their approaches range from cultural theory to poststructuralism each essayist addresses a general audience while engaging in debates of interest to postgraduates and specialists in the fields of twentieth century poetry and cultural studies The book s strength lies in its diversity at every level

Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women s literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister s companion to Third World women s literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries

Teaching Anglophone Caribbean Literature Supriya M. Nair, 2012-10-01 This volume in the Options for Teaching series recognizes that the most challenging aspect of introducing students to anglophone Caribbean literature the sheer variety of intellectual and artistic traditions in Western and non Western cultures that relate to it also offers the greatest opportunities to teachers Courses on anglophone literature in the Caribbean can consider the region s specific histories and contexts even as they explore common issues the legacies of slavery colonialism and colonial education nationalism exile and migration identity and hybridity class and racial conflict gender and sexuality religion and ritual While considering how the availability of materials shapes syllabi this volume recommends print digital and visual resources for teaching The essays examine a host of topics including the following the development of multiethnic populations in the Caribbean and the role of various creole languages in the literature oral art forms such as dub poetry and reggae music the influence of anglophone literature in the Caribbean on literary movements outside it such as the Harlem Renaissance and black British writing Carnival religious rituals and beliefs specific genres such as slave narratives and autobiography film and drama the economics of rum Many essays list resources for further reading and the volume concludes with a section of additional teaching resources exploring experience mastering technique and thereby releasing the full potential of the imagination As most taught courses in creative writing are in workshop form each chapter includes invaluable ideas on how to run group sessions and offer a rich fund of suggestions for developing writing beyond the workshop      African Diasporas in the New and Old Worlds

,2021-11-01 In the humanities the term diaspora recently emerged as a promising and powerful heuristic concept It challenged traditional ways of thinking and invited reconsiderations of theoretical assumptions about the unfolding of cross cultural and multi ethnic societies about power relations frontiers and boundaries about cultural transmission communication and translation The present collection of essays by renowned writers and scholars addresses these issues and helps to ground the ongoing debate about the African diaspora in a more solid theoretical framework Part I is dedicated to a general discussion of the concept of African diaspora its origins and historical development Part II examines the complex cultural dimensions of African diasporas in relation to significant sites and figures including the modes and modalities of creative expression from the perspective of both artists writers and their audiences finally Part III focusses on the resources collections and archives and iconographies that are available today As most authors argue the African diaspora should not be seen merely as a historical phenomenon but also as an idea or ideology and an object of representation By exploring this new ground the essays assembled here provide important new insights for scholars in American and African American Studies Cultural Studies Ethnic Studies and African Studies The collection is rounded off by an annotated listing of black autobiographies      Perspectives on Travel Writing Glenn Hooper,2017-05-15 Ranging from the early modern to the postcolonial and dealing mainly with encounters in Europe the Americas and the Middle East Perspectives on Travel Writing is a collection of new essays by international scholars that examines some of the various contexts of travel writing as well as its generic characteristics Contributions examine the similarities between autobiography and memoir fiction and travel writing and attempt to define travel writing as a genre Utilising a variety of approaches the essays display a shared concern with what travel writing does and how it does it The effects of encounter and border crossing on gender race and national identity are considered throughout The collection begins with a review of some of the problems and issues facing the scholar of travel writing and moves on to a detailed discussion of the qualities of travel writing and its related forms It then presents in chronological order a number of case studies before closing with a critical discussion of approaches to the subject An essay collection with broad historical and geographical coverage this volume should appeal to students and researchers of travel and travel related literatures from across the Humanities      Black Women's Writing Gina Wisker,1992-12-18 This book contains a lively and wide ranging collection of critical essays on Black women s writing from Afro American African South African British and Caribbean novelists poets short story writers and a dramatist The contributors are black and white female and male academics and readers who chart their engagement with and enjoyment of the texts of some of the key figures in black women s writing across several continents      The Heinemann Book of Caribbean Poetry Ian

McDonald, Stewart Brown, 1992 This collection is an invaluable academic selection and will provide a fine introduction for the general reader interested in the lyricism of Caribbean poetry      The Routledge Research Companion to Travel Writing

Alasdair Pettinger, Tim Youngs, 2019-07-30 Showcasing established and new patterns of research The Routledge Research Companion to Travel Writing takes an interdisciplinary approach to scholarship and to travel texts themselves The volume adopts a thematic approach with each contributor considering a specific aspect of travel writing a recurrent motif an organising principle or a literary form All of the essays include a discussion of representative travel texts to ensure that the volume as a whole represents a broad historical and geographical range of travel writing Together the 25 essays and the editors introduction offer a comprehensive and authoritative reflection of the state of travel writing criticism and lay the ground for future developments      Classroom in Conflict John A. Williams, 1994-01-01 This book transcends recent debates about political correctness to address the underlying problems of teaching controversial subjects in the college and university history classroom The author criticizes both sides of the debate rejecting on the one hand calls for a uniform chronological history curriculum and on the other hand claims that only ethnic or racial insiders are qualified to teach about their communities In chapters on colonial comparative and African history Williams applies the concept of Gandhian truth to historical subjects moving through tentative and flexible perspectives to achieve a complex picture of historical episodes And in chapters on imperialism nationalism racism and the problem of the other he discusses the difficult and contingent nature of conceptual language In the second half of the book he addresses framing rules of discussion by which sensitive issues can be discussed with diverse audiences the relationship of American pluralism to a world perspective and what can be accomplished through an education in pluralism
