Shanghai Year Peter Brigg, 1987-01-01 This book represents snapshots of Shanghai with speculations on their meaning as China opens to the West and undergoes yet another shift towards modernity Asia/Pacific as Space of Cultural Production Rob Wilson, Arif Dirlik, 1995 Although the Asia Pacific region occupies a prominent place in geopolitical thinking little is available to readers concerning the resistant communities and cultures of Pacific and Asian peoples This book fills that gap by documenting the efforts of diverse indigenous cultures to claim and reimagine Asia Pacific as a space for their own cultural production by presenting essays poems and memoirs by prominent Asia Pacific writers that resist appropriation by transnational capitalism through the articulation of autonomous local identities and counter histories of place and community In addition cultural critics spanning several locations and disciplines deconstruct representations particularly those on film and in novels that perpetuate Asia Pacific as a realm of EuroAmerican fantasy This collection offers a new perception of the Asia Pacific region by presenting the Pacific not as a paradise or vast emptiness but as a place where living struggling peoples have constructed contemporary identities out of a long history of hegemony and resistance back cover

new ways of dealing with the risks of modern life As well as discussing primary insurance it also considers the role played by reinsurance without which the losses arising out of today's natural and man-made disasters would be immeasurably greater Finally taking modern day disaster scenarios as examples the book shows just what the limits of insurability are and what risks worldwide networks entail
