Fighting Stars Kyle Barrowman, 2024-09-05 Fighting Stars provides a rich and diverse account of the emergence and legacies of Hong Kong martial arts cinema stars Tracing the meanings and influence of stars such as Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Michelle Yeoh Jet Li Zhang Ziyi and Donnie Yen against the shifting backdrops of the Hong Kong film industry the contributors to this important volume highlight martial arts stars cultural reach both on a local and global scale Each of the chapters written by a host of renowned international scholars focuses on an individual film star considering issues such as martial arts practices and philosophies gender and age national identities and conflicts cinematic genres and aesthetic choices in order to understand their local and transnational cultural influence

The Encyclopedia of Martial Arts Movies Bill Palmer, Karen Palmer, 1995 The Encyclopedia covers the genre from 1920 to 1994 The genre however can be very confusing films often have several titles and many of the stars have more than one pseudonym In an effort to clarify some of the confusion the authors have included all the information available to them on almost 3 300 films Each entry includes a listing of the production company the cast and crew distributors running times reviews with star ratings whenever possible and alternate film titles A list of film series and one of the stars pseudonyms in addition to a 7 900 name index are also included Illustrated

The Empire Triumphant Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2017-08-10 George Lucas's first Star Wars trilogy shows the influences of its era Cold War tension is evident in its theme of rebellion against totalitarianism Recent entries in the Star Wars saga The Phantom Menace 1999 and Attack of the Clones 2002 are much more concerned with evil corporations terrorists and the corruption of the political process Each film is influenced by the times in which it was released but also by cultural subtexts and by other films that had direct and indirect effects on Lucas as writer producer and director This work focuses on all six Star Wars films The first topic of this multifaceted examination is how the films use the language of colonialism The Rebellion The Empire to emphasize the idea of imperialism Next the author looks at how Asian influences including religious undertones from Taoism and Buddhism and the works of Kurosawa and other Asian filmmakers provide a subtext for much of the action Next the discussion turns to the representation of people of color in the Star Wars universe and how other ethnicities are represented overall particularly through the literalization of the word aliens These topics of discussion provide for penetrating conclusions about Lucas's films and how they represent race religion and rebellion
