immigrants will respond to this huge mobility of immigrant diaspora. So far there has been emphasis on doing diaspora missiology; however, there are no practical implications and application in local church setting. Now mission is next door, which implies that the ministry of the local church should be emphasized for 21st century mission. This book provides detailed frameworks and methods of diaspora missiology within local churches called diaspora mission church. According to the Bible, all human beings are theologically and spiritually diaspora, irrespective of ethnicity, because they were banished from the Garden of Eden and scattered around the world in God's judgment. Now they walk toward the encounter with Jesus Christ, preach the gospel as the seed of Kingdom, and finally move toward heaven. Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke, 2008-04-01. In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest, one who thinks more deeply, asks more questions, and wants to make a difference in the world. This young person may be seen as a loner, an upstart, or someone who does not fit. Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth, and a youth program that meets the congregation's expectations probably won't connect with the needs and interests of searching youth. Eventually, searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions, insights, witness, and service. These young people have the capacity and ability to provide significant leadership in our congregations now and in the future. Because of their unique gifts, we are offering this book as a resource for pastors, teachers, and youth leaders who work with them. In this book, faculty members, students, and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through the eyes of their academic disciplines and ministry experience to explore the foundations for ministry with searching youth and to offer designs for your ministry. The Permanent Revolution Alan Hirsch, Tim Catchim, 2012-01-06. The authors examine the nature of organization as reframed through the lens of apostolic ministry. Shows how to view the world through a biblical perspective and continue the permanent revolution that Jesus started. Your Church in Rhythm Bruce B. Miller, 2011-01-13 A gentle new way for church leaders to survive stress and burnout. Bruce Miller debunks the idea of balance, basically trying to have it all all the time. Most churches and their pastors try to do everything at once and feel guilty if any one aspect (worship, ministries, outreach, etc.) is neglected. He replaces the exhausting concept of balance with the idea of rhythm: churches like people need to give attention to different programs and ministries at different times, basically by attending to their seasons and cycles. Offers an innovative new model for church leaders. Miller has been influential in the formation and promotion of Church Based Training as an international movement. Offers a proven method for avoiding burnout for church leaders and members by doing the right things at the right time. The author offers much-needed help to overwhelmed leaders and shows them how to apply Miller's seasonal cyclical approach to church life.

The Post-Black and Post-White Church Efrem Smith, 2012-08-14 A blueprint for missional multi-ethnic Christian community. Efrem Smith, an internationally recognized and innovative African American leader, offers a workable plan for connecting theology, practical ministry models, and real stories of people in multi-ethnic Christian communities. Using the example of Jesus, Smith develops a theology of multi-ethnic and missional leadership. Embracing urban and ethnic subcultures such as hip-hop, this book provides a rich mix of multi-ethnic church development, reconciliation theology, missional church thinking, and Christian community. Provides a common-sense approach to creating a multi-ethnic Christian community. Includes practical ministry models and real stories of people who are members of thriving multi-ethnic congregations. Author is acclaimed African American thought leader who planted and led a multi-ethnic church of close to 1,000 and now leads a regional division of a denominational church committed to ethnic multi-ethnic and missional churches. This book is written for anyone wrestling with what it means to be a Christian in an increasingly multi-ethnic world polarized by class politics and race.
