Shaping Actors Shaping Factors In Russias Future Europe And The World Series:

Shaping the EU Global Strategy Natalia Chaban, Martin Holland, 2018-10-04 This book explores the images and perceptions of the EU in the eyes of their Strategic Partners Spanning four continents these ten important global actors the BRICS together with the USA Canada Japan South Korea and Mexico are of profound significance to the EU in economics politics security and global governance In 2015 the volume s editors and contributors were commissioned by the European External Action Service to research these countries perceptions towards the EU The research highlights how in changing multilateral settings images and perceptions significantly influence the behaviour and foreign policy choices of actors The findings presented in this book helped to inform the content and focus of the 2016 EU Global Strategy and will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners of EU foreign policy European integration and public diplomacy

Shaping the Post-Soviet Space? Laure Delcour, 2016-04-01 While the European Union EU is widely perceived as a model for regional integration the encouragement of regional co operation also ranks high among its foreign policy priorities Drawing on a wealth of sources and extensive fieldwork conducted in the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS Laure Delcour questions the pursuit of this external objective in EU policies implemented in the CIS and the existence of an EU regional vision in the post Soviet area She asks does the recent compartmentalization of EU policies correspond to a growing fragmentation of the former Soviet Union that cannot be considered as a region anymore Does it rather reflect the EU s own interests in the area Interested in exposing why the EU has not pursued a strategy of region building in the post Soviet area Delcour examines the disintegration dynamics affecting the area following the collapse of the USSR the interplay between different actors and levels of action in EU foreign policy making and the role of other region builders She takes a closer look at the strategic partnership with Russia European Neighbourhood Policy Eastern Partnership and Black Sea Synergy as a capability test for the European foreign policy to promote its foreign policy priorities and to raise a distinctive profile in the international arena

Shaping Actors, Shaping Factors in Russia's Future Paul Gerd Löser, 1998 The break up of the old Soviet empire has left behind a Russia that is struggling into the global market economy against the historical burden inherited from the old regime This study argues that the transition into a democratic future has not worked and considers possible future scenarios

Russian Energy in a Changing World Jakub M. Godzimirski, 2016-03-23 For a long time Russia s position as a key global energy player has enhanced Moscow s international economic and political influence whilst causing concern amongst other states fearful of becoming too dependent on Russia as an energy supplier The Global Financial Crisis shook this established image of Russia as an indispensable energy superpower immune to negative external influences and revealed the full extent of Russia s dependence on oil and gas for economic and political influence This led to calls from within the country for a new approach where energy resources were no longer regarded wholly as an asset but also a potential curse resulting in an over reliance on one sector thwarting modernization of the economy and the country as a whole In this fascinating and timely volume leading Russian and Western scholars examine various aspects of Russian energy policy and the opportunities and constraints that influence the choices made by the country's energy decision makers Contributors focus on Russia's energy relations with the rest of the world alongside internal debates about the need for diversification and modernisation in a changing economy country and world system where overdependence on energy commodities has become a key concern for customer and supplier alike Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999 The Stationery Office Agency Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain), 1998 HMSO Agency Catalogue Great Britain. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
