Shaping The Schools Of The Canadian West:

Shaping the Schools of the Canadian West David C. Jones, Nancy M. Sheehan, Robert M. Stamp, 1979-01-01 Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework Richard Connors, John M. Law, University of Alberta. Centre for Constitutional Studies, 2005-11 Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework analyzes the principal events and processes that precipitated the emergence and formation of the law and legal culture of Alberta from the foundation of the Hudson's Bay in 1670 until the eve of the centenary of the Province in 2005. The formation of Alberta's constitution and legal institutions was by no means a simple process by which English and Canadian law was imposed upon a receptive and passive population. Challenges to authority, latent lawlessness, interaction between indigenous and settler societies, periods pre and post 1905 of jurisdictional confusion and demands for individual group and provincial rights and recognitions are as much part of Alberta's legal history as the heroic and mythic images of an emergent and orderly Canadian west patrolled from the outset by red-coated mounted police and peopled by peaceful and law-abiding subjects of the Crown. Papers focus on the development of criminal law in the Canadian west in the nineteenth century, the Natural Resources Transfer Agreement of 1930, the National Energy Program of the 1980s, Federal-Provincial relations and the role and responsibilities of the offices of Justices of the Peace and of the Lieutenant Governor and the legacies of the Lougheed and Klein governments. The Canadian Prairies Gerald Friesen, 1987-01-01 A history of the Canadian prairie provinces from the days of Native-European contact to the 1980s.

Tsqelmucwíl Celia Haig-Brown, 2022-11-08 In May 2021 the world was shocked by the news of the detection of 215 unmarked graves on the grounds of the former Kamloops Indian Residential School (KIRS) in British Columbia, Canada. Ground-penetrating radar established the deaths of students as young as three in the infamous residential school system where children were systematically removed from their families and brought to the schools. At these Christian-run and government-supported institutions they were subjected to physical, mental, and sexual abuse while their Indigenous languages and traditions were stifled and denounced. The egregious abuses suffered at residential schools everywhere created a multi-generational legacy of trauma for those who survived, and as the 2021 discoveries confirmed death for too many. Tsqelmucwíl pronounced cha CAL mux weel is a Secwepemc phrase loosely translated as 'We return to being human again.' Tsqelmucwíl is the story of those who survived the Kamloops Indian Residential School, based on the book Resistance and Renewal, a groundbreaking history of the school published in 1988, the first book on residential schools ever published in Canada. Tsqelmucwíl includes the original text as well as new material by the original book's author, Celia Haig-Brown, essays by Secwepemc poet and KIRS survivor Garry Gottfriedson, and Nuuchahnulth elder and residential school survivor Randy Fred, and first-hand reminiscences by other survivors of KIRS as well as their children on their experience of KIRS and the impact of their residential school trauma throughout their lives. Read both within and outside the context of the grim 2021 discoveries. Tsqelmucwíl is a tragic story in the history of Indigenous peoples of the indignities suffered at the hands of their colonizers but it is equally a remarkable tale of Indigenous survival resilience and courage This publication meets the EPUB Accessibility requirements and it also meets the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines WCAG AA It is screen reader friendly and is accessible to persons with disabilities A book with many images which is defined with accessible structural markup This book contains various accessibility features such as alternative text for images table of contents page list landmark reading order and semantic structure

A History of Education in Saskatchewan University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006 Youth, University, and Canadian Society Paul Axelrod, John G. Reid, 1989 Paul Axelrod and John Reid take the reader through one hundred years of the complex and turbulent history of youth university and society Contributors explore the question of how students have been affected by war and social change and discuss who was able to attend university and who was not showing how access to privilege has changed over the years How Schools Worked Robert Douglas Gidney, Winnifred Phoebe Joyce Millar, 2012 A richly textured study of educational developments in English speaking Canada from the close of the Victorian Age to the eve of World War II The Canadian experience Sarla Achuthan, 1993 Language in Canada John Edwards, 1998-07-09 Language in Canada provides an up to date account of the linguistic and cultural situation in Canada primarily from a sociolinguistic perspective The strong central theme connecting language with group and identity will offer insights into the current linguistic and cultural tension in Canada The book provides comprehensive accounts of the original charter languages French and English as well as the aboriginal and immigrant varieties which now contribute to the overall picture It explains how they came into contact and sometimes into conflict and looks at the many ways in which they weave themselves through and around the Canadian social fabric The public policy issues particularly official bilingualism and educational policy and language are also given extensive coverage Non specialists as well as linguists will find in this volume a companion to Language in Australia Language in the USA and Language in the British Isles an indispensable guide and reference to the linguistic heritage of Canada The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada's external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline

Foundations of Education Matthew Bruce Etherington, 2014-06-20 Ideas about education have consequences This book edited by Matthew Etherington provides readers with ideas and insights drawn from fifteen international scholars in Christian thought within the fields of philosophy theology and education Each author responds to the philosophical historical and sociological challenges that confront their particular line of educational inquiry The authors offer a view of Christian education that promotes truth human dignity peace love diversity and justice The book critically analyzes public discourse on education including the wisdom actions recommendations and controversies of Christian education in the twenty first century This timely book will appeal to those concerned with Christian perspectives on education Aboriginality gender history evangelism secularism constructivism purpose hope school choice and community Religion in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili,Rumjahn Hoosain,2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education The Curriculum History of Canadian Teacher Education Theodore Michael Christou,2017-08-07 Organized by region this edited collection provides a comprehensive look at how teacher education has evolved regionally and nationally in Canada Offering an in depth look at specific provinces and territories this volume contextualizes the landscape of Canadian public education and the place of teacher education within it Shedding light on the ways Canadian teacher education was shaped by and in turn influenced its environment contributors evaluate the current state of education and consider themes tensions and historical developments presenting a view of teacher education that encompasses both its future and its past A significant contribution to the field of curriculum history this book offers a benchmark for conversations about the purposes means and ends of teacher education in Canada Ukrainians in Canada Orest T.
