God in Christ Matthew Friedman, 2017-10-26 A significant number of Muslim communities throughout the world reflect varying degrees of involvement in Islamic mysticism. What bridges are present in this context that will facilitate not only evangelism but also discipleship and community formation? Matthew Friedman guides the reader on a journey examining the response of the early Christian community to the challenges of ancient Jewish and Hellenic mysticism, focusing on the central idea of union with God in Christ. Far from finding this to be a leftover from the early Church, he discovers that this theme remained crucial into the Reformation, particularly in the writing and work of eighteenth-century figures John and Charles Wesley. Join Friedman as he explores resources for discipleship and community building that will be relevant to both scholars and practitioners alike and will be effective for witness within modern contexts of Islamic mysticism worldwide. Nizam

Ad-din Awliya Nizāmuddīn Auliya, 1992. Translated from Persian. Morals for the Heart contains the conversations of Shaykh Nizam ad din Awliya d. 1325, a major Indian saint as recorded by his disciple. Translating Wisdom Shankar

Nair, 2020-04-28 A free open access ebook is available upon publication. Learn more at www.luminosoa.org. During the height of Muslim power in Mughal South Asia, Hindu and Muslim scholars worked collaboratively to translate a large body of Hindu Sanskrit texts into the Persian language. Translating Wisdom reconstructs the intellectual processes and exchanges that underlay these translations. Using as a case study the 1597 Persian rendition of the Yoga Vasistha, an influential Sanskrit philosophical tale whose popularity stretched across the subcontinent, Shankar Nair illustrates how these early modern Muslim and Hindu scholars drew upon their respective religious, philosophical, and literary traditions to forge a common vocabulary through which to understand one another. These scholars thus achieved, Nair argues, a nuanced cultural exchange and interreligious and cross-philosophical dialogue significant not only to South Asia's past but also its present. Celtic

Spirituality Oliver Davies, Thomas O'Loughlin, 1999. This volume offers translations of numerous texts from the Celtic tradition from the 6th through the 13th centuries in a cross-section of genres and forms. Sharing the Sacred Anna

Bigelow, 2010-02-04. The author looks at a place where the conditions for religious conflict are present but active conflict is absent, focusing on a Muslim-majority Punjab town, Malkerkotla, where both during the Partition and subsequently there has been no inter-religious violence. Valentin Weigel Valentin Weigel, 2003. Offered here for the first time in English is a selection of the most important and characteristic works of Valentin Weigel (1533-88). Readers will find in this volume an introduction to the life, times, and writings of Weigel, a German teacher and theologian who articulated a variant of the Protestant Reformation known as Spiritualism, a form of dissent emphasizing spiritual or inner independence from rules, ceremonies, and the visible or organized church. Together, these works present the heart of this reformer's thought, which championed tolerance and individual conscience in an age of confessional hatred and religious war. Weigel's writings are Spiritualist theory at its most accurate. They complete a missing chapter in the history of mystical literature. Book jacket
