Sharing Biblical Dialogues Church Publishing Inc,2002 Readings are laid out with different speakers parts clearly indicated and offer a refreshing alternative to single voice reading Includes complete indexes for Years A B and C and major Holy Days attractive pages can be printed directly from the screen or copied into a word processing program introduction offers tips for successful dialogue experiences     The Ecumenical Christian Dialogues and the Catechism of the Catholic Church Jeffrey Gros,Daniel S. Mulhall,2006 Due to growing interest in ecumenism dialogue among Christian churches has grown in the last 50 years This one of a kind book offers selections from ecumenical dialogues formally sponsored by the Catholic Church arranged according to the order of the Catechism of the Catholic Church readers can learn what the Catholic Church believes and what other Christian churches believe on the same topic gathered together The volume of selections begins with a chapter on Catholic ecumenical principles and a chapter on the churches involved in the dialogue Following these introductory chapters are seven chapters on agreements in faith sacraments the Christian life and spirituality following the four parts of the Catechism Throughout the seven final chapters are editor s notes to help the reader understand the context of the dialogues the pertinent issues involved and the significance of what has been addressed all in clear easy to understand language     African and European Readers of the Bible in Dialogue Gerald West,Hans (J.H) de Wit,2008-07-31 Far too long the relationship between European and African biblical scholarship has been a non relationship Divergent insights into how biblical texts should be interpreted and made fruitful for the current context cultural differences colonial past and post colonial future radically different social situations this all made companionship and real interaction difficult This rich and multilayered volume result of a Stellenbosch conference 2006 attempts to disclose new modes of dialogue between readers of the Bible from those two worlds More than twenty theologians from Africa and Europe reflect together on how readers from radically different contexts professional and ordinary alike may become allies in an ethically accountable way of relating the biblical text to their current global situations and how a process of mutual learning may be established This book provides important insights in intercultural hermeneutics the relationship between classical historico literary approaches and new forms of interpretation It also gives examples of new forms of how to read the Bible in the secularised European context and the HIV Aids stricken Africa Particularly enriching is that every contribution is followed by a personal letter of response of another contributor to the book giving impulses for further dialogue and debate The book is useful for all biblical scholars and students in particular for those interested in how to do contextual exegesis in a manner that also takes into account the context of the other     Sharing the Scriptures Philip A. Cunningham,2003 Explores the proper relationship between the Old and New Testaments both in the history of the growth of the Bible as a combined book and in its use in the liturgical texts of the Christian churches     Four (and a half) Dialogues on Homosexuality and the Bible Donald J. Zeyl,2022-02-07 Four and a half Dialogues on Homosexuality and the Bible explores four different interpretive approaches to biblical texts regarding homosexuality and same sex marriage Differences of interpretation are discussed openly honestly and charitably The dialogues four characters maintain friendship with each other despite their disagreements and so the book serves as a model of how difficult potentially divisive conversations on a controversial topic might be conducted Three of the four perspectives presented for examination are well represented in the existing literature the fourth is not as familiar and is offered and developed as a proposal for bridging the divide that persists among theologically conservative Christians who honor the authority of Scripture over their thinking and their living Ongoing conflict over this issue is destructive of the unity toward which the Bible summons all believers to strive and so the book includes also a call to create space for one another both individually and institutionally for differences in theological conclusions and in community practices Each of the dialogues begins with one of the characters telling their personal story regarding their sexuality continues with that character's case for their view and concludes with a series of suggested discussion questions

Practices of Dialogue in the Roman Catholic Church Bradford E. Hinze,2006-01-01

Jewish-Christian Dialogues on Scripture in Late Antiquity Michal Bar-Asher Siegal,2019-05-16 Marshalling previously untapped Christian materials Bar Asher Siegal offers radically new insights into Talmudic stories about Scriptural debates with Christian heretics

Creation Stories in Dialogue: The Bible, Science, and Folk Traditions Jan G. van der Watt,R. Alan Culpepper,2015-11-02 This book is about creation stories in dialogue not only between different religious views but also between current day scientific perspectives International specialists like Alan Culpepper David Christian John Haught Randall Zachman Ellen van Wolde from various disciplines are reflecting on the interface between science and religion relating questions of creation and origin This multi disciplinary discussion by some of the leading exponents in this field makes the book unique not only in its depth of discussion but also in its wide ranging interdisciplinary discussion The point of departure of all the contributions is the prestige lecture by Alan Culpepper where he argues for bringing Biblical material into discussion with modern scientific insights relating to creation and origin

Christian Apologetics as Cross-Cultural Dialogue Benno van den Toren,2011-10-27 A call for a new understanding of apologetics moving away from appeals to transcultural rationality arguing for a new form of cross cultural dialogue

Christian-Muslim Dialogue Heidi Hirvonen,2012-11-09 Lebanon is a significant region of encounter between Muslims and Christians in the Middle East This book examines how Christian Muslim dialogue is envisioned by four present day Lebanese thinkers Great Ayatollah Muhammad Husayn Fadlallah and Doctor Mahmoud Ayoub from the Shiite tradition and Metropolitan Georges Khodr and Doctor Father Mouchir Basile Aoun from the Eastern Christian Antiochian tradition The study seeks to bring the four thinkers into dialogue on a number of topics including doctrinal themes ethical principles and the issue of political power sharing in Lebanon All four thinkers make several suggestions for facilitating mutual understanding and transcending old debates The concept of God and the principle of neighbourly love seem to have particular potential as fruitful bases for

Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2020-06-08 This comprehensive volume brings together a distinguished editorial team including some of the field's pioneers to explore the aims practice and historical context of interfaith collaboration Explores in full the background history objectives and discourse between the leaders and practitioners of the world's major religions Examines relations between religions from around the world moving well beyond the common focus on Christianity to also cover over 12 major religions Features a wealth of case studies on contemporary interreligious dialogue Charts a long term shift away from a competitive rivalry between belief systems and a change in focus towards the more respectful cooperative approach reflected in institutions such as the World Council of Churches Includes up to date commentary on the growing dialogue of recent years written by some of the leading figures working in the field of interfaith discourse      The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture

Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue Marianne Moyaert, Joris Geldhof, 2015-04-23 Shared ritual practices multi faith celebrations and interreligious prayers are becoming increasingly common in the USA and Europe as more people experience religious diversity first hand While ritual participation can be seen as a powerful expression of interreligious solidarity it also carries with it challenges of a particularly sensitive nature Though celebrating and worshipping together can enhance interreligious relations cross ritining may also lead some believers to question whether it is appropriate to engage in the rituals of another faith community Some believers may consider cross ritual participation as inappropriate transgressive behaviour Bringing together leading international contributors and voices from a number of religious traditions Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue delves into the complexities and intricacies of the phenomenon They ask what are the promises and perils of celebrating and praying together What are the limits of ritual participation How can we make sense of feelings of discomfort when entering the sacred space of another faith community The first book to focus on the lived dimensions of interreligious dialogue through ritual participation rather than textual or doctrinal issues this innovative volume opens an entirely new perspective Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn Horsfjord, 2017-10-23 In Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn L. Horsfjord offers an analysis of texts from an international dialogue process between Christian and Muslim leaders. Through detailed engagement with the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007 and a large number of Christian responses to it, the study analyses the dialogue process in the wake of the Muslim initiative and shows how the various texts gain meaning through their interaction. The author uses tools from critical discourse analysis and speech act analysis and claims that the Islamic dialogue initiative became more important as an invitation to Muslim-Christian dialogue than as theological reflection. He shows how Christian leaders systematically chose to steer the dialogue process towards practical questions about peaceful coexistence and away from theological issues.

Buddhist-Christian Dialogue, U.S. Law, and Womanist Theology for Transgender Spiritual Care Pamela Ayo Yetunde, 2020-04-30 This book, written with hospital spiritual care providers in mind, investigates how to expand the field and scope of compassion within the hospital context for the spiritual care and safety of transgender patients. Written by a law-educated pastoral counselor, it advocates for chaplain legal literacy and explains the consequences of spiritual care providers not knowing more about the law. It explores the current political and legal situation transgender hospital patients find themselves in and especially how these new policies put transgender people at risk when they are in a hospital setting. Pamela Ayo Yetunde offers Buddhist-Christian activist interreligious dialogue methods to promote deeper understanding of how spiritual practices can cultivate empathy for transgender patients.

The Politics of Gender in Early American Theater Leopold Lippert, Ralph J. Poole, 2022-01-05 In the late 18th and early 19th centuries, the American theater emerged as a crucial cultural space for debates around gender stereotypes, gendered conduct, sexual desire, the politics of intimacy and domesticity, female authorship, as well as the complex intersections of gender and other markers of cultural difference such as race, ethnicity, socioeconomic class, age, or nation. This collection explores the role of gender in the formation of American theatrical culture in this period. It features essays on well-known early American dramatists such as Susanna Rowson or Judith Sargent Murray but also sheds light on anonymous authors and more obscure theatrical practices.

Identity in Dialogue Didier Pollefeyt, Jan Bouwens, 2014 Situated in increasingly pluralizing cultural contexts, Catholic schools face the challenge of recontextualizing their identity in a culturally plausible and theologically legitimate way. To this end, across Victoria, Australia, the Enhancing Catholic School Identity Project (ECSIP) has developed a suite of empirical instruments that provide an in-depth analysis of a school's current as well as desired identity in a statistically reliable way. The results are discussed in this book. After describing and interpreting the results, the empirical insights lead to well-informed recommendations aimed at the identity development of Catholic schools with a normative preference for the Recontextualizing Dialogue School model as the way to enhance Catholic identity in a context of diversity. In this manner, ECSIP supports ongoing processes of self-assessment that form the basis for continuing dynamics of self-
