Joubert,2022-12-01 A view of human nature generally undergirds approaches to mental health and flourishing Spirituality is accepted by most cultures as an integral part of human nature and cannot be ignored when attempting to take care of our suffering and promoting flourishing The onset of the COVID 19 pandemic in December 2019 caused worldwide shock and ripped at the very fabric of society Everybody was affected by the threat of the illness and loss of lives The disastrous economic impact is still felt in many parts of the world In this book a combination of Christian faith and scientific knowledge is presented as an answer to the question of human suffering Individual and collective suffering are addressed by various articles and therapeutic models The book further serves to deepen understanding of the value of spiritual knowledge and insight in therapy for both Christian and non Christian therapists in respect of both theory and practice The content covers a wide range of topics including collective suffering individual suffering due to abuse elements of Christian psychotherapy the role of conscience and faith in healing spiritual maturity and a Christian view of identity in a digital age Shared Wisdom Pamela Cooper-White,2024-11-19 For twenty years educators caregivers psychotherapists and theologians have turned to Pamela Cooper White s Shared Wisdom on the dynamics between caregivers and care seekers Now Cooper White updates her groundbreaking book to present new insights on how understanding one s own emotional reactions remains a core competency for ministry Sharing Spaces? Jessica Rose,2002 In a discussion on how counsellors integrate prayer and professional practice someone asked why it had taken so long for someone to ask such an obvious question Perhaps it has something to do with the fact that it highlights areas that require deeply personal answers They touch on practice at the level of what we believe about the very nature of human beings and our relationships with each other The counselling profession is committed to being non directive and non judgmental But what happens when prayer is part of the counsellor s life Or part of the client s Or both Sharing Spaces is a practical and insightful contribution to an under explored area looking at ways in which prayer can inform and nourish the counselling process as well as ways in which the two areas can be difficult to integrate Black Couples Therapy
