Teaching Perry Glanzer, Nathan Alleman, 2019-07-29 Hundreds of thousands of professors claim Christian as their primary identity and teaching as their primary vocational responsibility. Yet in the contemporary university the intersection of these two identities often is a source of fear misunderstanding and moral confusion How does being a Christian change one s teaching Indeed should it Inspired by George Marsden s 1997 book The Outrageous Idea of Christian Scholarship this book draws on a survey of more than 2 300 Christian professors from 48 different institutions in North America to reveal a wide range of thinking about faith informed teaching Placing these empirical findings alongside the wider scholarly conversation about the role of identity informed teaching Perry L Glanzer and Nathan F Alleman argue that their Christian identity can and should inform professors teaching in the contemporary pluralistic university. The authors provide a nuanced alternative to those who advocate for restraining the influence of one s extra professional identity and those who in the name of authenticity promote the full integration of one s primary identity into the classroom. The book charts new ground regarding how professors think about Christian teaching specifically as well as how they should approach identity informed teaching Connecting the Dots Peter Rudowski, 2009-04-09 We have learned from nature that animal and plant life more generally thrives when all the systems of their surroundings are in harmony The same can be said for human institutions When the organizational systems of human institutions are in harmony the organization thrives This book identifies the interaction of eight organizational components that promote creative ministry in the Christian church setting The author combines biblical study management theory and hard earned experience to help church leaders understand and use organizational systems to maximize their ministry Connect the dots of these eight components for effective ministry in the 21st century Disciples Teresa Roberts, 2024-10-08 Every child from infancy to adolescence is being discipled by someone or something The question is Are you willing to disciple them for Jesus sake Accessible and actionable for parents of children birth to 13 years old Raising Disciples offers a detailed discipleship map and directional markers to nurture your child's spiritual growth with Christ During her more than 25 years in children's ministry alongside her academic work training up children's ministry leaders Dr Teresa Roberts noticed that parents and even children's ministry leaders seemed to struggle with knowing how to disciple children past the more intuitive preschool ages A foundational family and ministry resource Raising Disciples reflects the developmental needs that will empower children to grow in their knowledge of God's Word develop a vocabulary of faith engage in spiritual practices and cultivate a deep personal relationship with God Featuring intuitive quick reference visual aids researched expertise real life examples from the ministry of Jesus and relational warmth Raising Disciples is a must have resource to give you a discipleship pathway for raising spiritually grounded children in today s complex world Includes additional tools Discipleship map from birth to adolescence Discipleship reference by age level Resource list for continued discipleship and training in biblical interpretation Discussion questions for children's ministry leaders and volunteers Learn how to equip your child with tools to navigate life s challenges and make their Christian faith a personal and lasting
