The Red Notebook Antoine Laurain, 2025-07-01 Described as Parisian perfection by Queen Camilla you won't want to miss this charming quirky love story from one of the UK's favourite French authors In this bestselling novel a bookseller pursues a mystery woman known only through the jottings in her red notebook through the streets of Paris Bookseller Laurent Letellier comes across an abandoned handbag on a Parisian street and feels compelled to return it to its owner Quickly ruling out the police station which is always best avoided he turns the contents out onto his kitchen table to see if they hold a clue The bag contains no money phone or contact information But it does yield a small red notebook full of handwritten thoughts and jottings that reveal someone Laurent would very much like to meet From the lists of likes and dislikes things noticed and things felt emerges the portrait of a woman who might just be his soulmate But without even a name to go on and only a few of her possessions to help him how is he to find one woman in a city of millions He'll have to turn to his daughter who helps him decode the possessions and sends him on a madcap journey around the French capital Meanwhile in an anonymous hospital room fragmentary thoughts float through the mind of a woman in a coma She thinks she's called Laure and she has some strong opinions and painful memories but will she ever wake up and get a fresh chance at life Soaked in Parisian atmosphere this lovely clever funny novel is the perfect French holiday read

The Post-war Novel and the Death of the Author Arya Aryan,2020-08-07 This book not only discloses and examines different functions and concepts of authorship in fiction and theory from the 1950s and 1960s to the present but it also reveals at least implicitly a trajectory of some of the modes and functions of the novel as a genre in the last few decades It argues that the explicit terms of much of the theoretical and philosophical debate surrounding the concept of authorship in the moment of High Theory in the 1980s had already been engaged albeit often more implicitly in literary fictions by writers themselves This book examines the fortunes of the authorship debate and the conceptualisations and functions of authorship before during and after the Death of the Author came to prominence as one of the key foci for the moment of High Theory in the 1980s

The Censor's Notebook Liliana Corobca, 2022-11-08 A fascinating narrative of life in communist Romania and a thought provoking meditation on the nature of literature and censorship Winner of the 2023 Oxford Weidenfeld Translation Prize A Censor s Notebook is a window into the intimate workings of censorship under communism steeped in mystery and secrets and lies confirming the power of literature to capture personal and political truths The novel begins with a seemingly non fiction frame story an exchange of letters between the author and Emilia Codrescu the female chief of the Secret Documents Office in Romania s feared State
