Joyce's Finnegans Wake John P. Anderson, 2008-07 This non academic author presents his key to opening James Joyce's infamously difficult and endlessly playful novel Finnegans Wake The key was fashioned in Kabbalah an ancient Jewish mystical tradition that as interpreted by Joyce champions independent individualism as the path to the highest spirituality Kabbalah images a universe excreted by the ultimate god a universe that is necessarily finite and limited that came with its own secondary god that is finite and limited the god presented in Genesis that issues blessing and curses designed to make mankind fearful and dependent the curse of Kabbalah Joyce laid this curse in his dream like Book of the Night in the elastic way that the latent or hidden content of a dream distorts the presentation of dream materials Acting like a black hole this curse pressures the main character Harold Chimpden Earwicker to fall to become fearful and dependent just like everyone else that is reduced to the mere initials HCE for Here Comes Everybody Joyce traces this curse from the myths in Genesis to the primal horde the first social organization of humans to the Oedipal Complex and to nation state warfare such as the Battle of Waterloo In a groundbreaking presentation Anderson deciphers word by word the first two chapters and part of the last chapter to show how this key opens the lock He shows for example how the joined ending and beginning of Joyce's wisdom book form the Hebrew word for curse and the ending shows confrontation rather than repression of fear of death as the key to life to your own wake Mother Box and Other Tales Sarah Blackman, 2013-10-04 The eleven stories and one novella of Mother Box and Other Tales bring together everyday reality and something that is dramatically not in compelling narratives of new possibilities In language that is both barb and bauble bitter and unbearably sweet Sarah Blackman spins the threads of stories where everything is probable and nothing is constant The stories in Mother Box and Other Tales occur in an in between world of outlandish possibility that has become irrefutable reality a woman gives birth to seven babies and realizes at one of their weddings that they were foxes all along a girl with irritating social quirks has been raised literally by cardboard boxes a young woman throws a dinner party only to have her elaborate dessert upstaged by one of the guests who as it turns out is the moon Love between mothers and children is a puzzling thrum that sounds at the very edge of hearing a muted pulse that nevertheless beats and beats and beats In these tales the prosaic details of everyday life a half eaten sandwich an unopened pack of letters on a table take on fevered significance as the characters blunder into revelations that occlude even as they unfold Materia Medica Pura Samuel Hahnemann,1846 Mystical Myra Robert Dean

At the Edges of Citizenship

Kate Hepworth, 2016-04-22 Proposing a new dynamic conception of citizenship this book argues against understandings of citizenship as a collection of rights that can be either possessed or endowed and demonstrates it is an emergent condition that has temporal and spatial dimensions Furthermore citizenship is shown to be continually and contingently reconstituted through the struggles between those considered insiders and outsiders Significantly these struggles do not result in a clear division between citizens and non citizens but in a multiplicity of states that are at once included within and excluded from the political community These liminal states of citizenship are elaborated in relation to three specific forms of non citizenship the respectable illegal the intimate foreigner and the abject citizen Each of these modalities of citizenship corresponds to either the figure of the clandestino a or the nomad as invoked in the 2008 Italian Security Package and a second set of laws commonly referred to as the Nomad Emergency Decree Exploring how this legislation affected and was negotiated by individuals and groups who were constituted as objects of security author Kate Hepworth focuses on the first hand experience of individuals deemed threats to the nation Situated within the field of human geography the book draws on literature from citizenship studies critical security studies and migration studies to show how processes of securitisation and irregularisation work to delimit between citizens and non citizens as well as between legitimate and illegitimate outsiders
