Sheer Fiction:

Sheer Fiction Paul West, 1991 Collections of essays and reviews some previously published in the periodical press of contemporary fiction Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman, 2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M. Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect some sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature

The Things Things Say Jonathan Lamb, 2021-07-13 One of the new forms of prose fiction that emerged in the eighteenth century was the first person narrative told by things such as coins, coaches, clothes, animals or insects. This is an ambitious new account of the context in which these narratives became so popular. What does it mean when property declares independence of its owners and begins to move and speak? Jonathan Lamb addresses this and many other questions as he advances a new interpretation of these odd tales from Defoe, Pope, Swift, Gay and Sterne to advertisements, still life paintings and South Seas journals. Lamb emphasizes the subversive and even nonsensical quality of what things say: their interests are so radically different from ours that we either destroy or worship them. Existing outside systems of exchange and the priorities of civil society, things in fact advertise the dissident, obscurity common to slave narratives all the way from Aesop and Phaedrus to Frederick Douglass and Primo Levi: a way of meaning only what is said, never saying what is meant. This is what Defoe's Roxana calls the Sense of Things, and it is found in sounds, substances and images rather than conventional signs. This major work illuminates not only its narratives but also eighteenth century literature, the rise of the novel and the genealogy of the slave narrative.
