George Henry Preble,1892 Memory's Daughters Susan Stabile,2018-09-05 A renowned literary coterie in eighteenth century Philadelphia Elizabeth Fergusson Hannah Griffiths Deborah Logan Annis Stockton and Susanna Wright wrote and exchanged thousands of poems and maintained elaborate handwritten commonplace books of memorabilia Through their creativity and celebrated hospitality they initiated a salon culture in their great country houses in the Delaware Valley In this stunningly original and heavily illustrated book Susan M Stabile shows that these female writers sought to memorialize their lives and aesthetic experience a purpose that stands in marked contrast to the civic concerns of male authors in the republican era Drawing equally on material culture and literary history Stabile discusses how the group used their writings to explore and at times replicate the arrangement of their material possessions including desks writing paraphernalia mirrors miniatures beds and coffins As she reconstructs the poetics of memory that informed the women s lives and structured their manuscripts Stabile focuses on vernacular architecture penmanship souvenir collecting and mourning Empirically rich and nuanced in its readings of different kinds of artifacts this engaging work tells of the erasure of the women s lives from the national memory as the feminine aesthetic of scribal publication was overshadowed by the proliferating print culture of late eighteenth century America Maye! Maye! Siphon Sithole,2024-10-04 This book presents an analysis of Johannesburg s Kwa Mai Mai market which was once known to regulars as a place of healing and has experienced numerous changes of significant national transformation over time It explores how the Kwa Mai Mai community formerly a working class of migrants reversed roles and took control of the means of production from the dominant class Through their heightened cultural consciousness this marginalised migrant community reimagined new economic realities and possibilities forever distancing themselves from their painful repressive past This book chronicles the significance of cultural memory and discusses how it can be used as a weapon to not only resist subjugation but also to invoke entrepreneurial and creative spirit Written out of the collective observations and interpretations of his ethnographic research spanning four years Sipho Sithole's Maye Maye is dedicated to marginalised communities and those who despite operating on the fringes of the economy have sought to create their own fortune and destiny Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa
