Simplicity And Complexity Pondering Literature Science And Painting:

Simplicity and Complexity Floyd Merrell, 1998 A fascinating exploration of the connections among science art and literature
Embodying Technesis Mark Hansen, 2000 Presents a radical revision of our understanding of the technological

Mapping Michel Serres Niran Abbas, 2009-12-14 Provides an extremely valuable introduction to the work of Michel Serres for an English speaking audience as well as offering useful critical approaches for those already familiar with its outlines Robert Harrison Stanford University blurb from review pending permission The work of Michel Serres including the books Hermes The Parasite The Natural Contract Genesis The Troubadour of Knowledge and Conversations on Science Culture and Time has stimulated readers for years as it challenges the boundaries of science literature culture language and epistemology The essays in Mapping Michel Serres written by the leading interpreters of his work offer perspectives from a range of disciplinary positions including literature language studies and cultural theory Contributors include Maria Assad Hanjo Berressem Stephen Clucas Steven Connor Andrew Gibson Ren Girard Paul Harris Marcel H naff William Johnsen William Paulson Marjorie Perloff Philipp Schweighauser Isabella Winkler and Julian Yates
Of Two Minds Michael Joyce, 1995 An acclaimed hypertext novelist s reflections on art and technology nonlinearity and the creative process

Cartographies of Transnationalism in Postcolonial Feminisms Jamil Khader, 2013 This book proffers a new theory of the radical possibilities of contemporary postcolonial feminist writings from Africa the Middle East the Americas and the Caribbean against what can be described as actually existing colonialisms These writers include prominent and other less known postcolonial women writers such as Tsitsi Dangarembga Louise Erdrich Aurora Levins Morales Rosario Morales Esmeralda Santiago Raymonda Tawil Michelle Cliff and Rigoberta Mench Negotiating the contradictions among gender nation and globalization postcolonial women writers construct extimate subjectivities that mark their excessive locations in the social field through the dialectical relation between the intimate and the external the intimately or internally external articulating these contradictions within the larger history and narratives of anti colonial internationalist struggle for liberation and emancipation Grounded in a commitment to the future of the postcolonial nation and the project of decolonization and liberation within the ever encroaching neocolonial global capitalist system postcolonial women s narratives of displacing offer not only an alternative mode of ideological critique of scripted and commonly inherited discourses of identity home culture that obfuscate the fundamental social antagonism but also ways of changing them through practices of radical politics The book thus charts four intersecting dialogic strategies by which postcolonial women writers produce extimate subjectivities travel unhomeliness multiple and shifting subject positions and transnational alliances First specific strategies of travel voluntary and involuntary within glocal networks of dispossession displacement and labor migration that foreground their extimate locations as internally external Second tactics of unhomeliness that uncover traces of the foreign and elsewhere in the edifice of the familiar that serve as the basis for interrogating dominant discourses of belonging Third techniques of multiple and shifting subject positions that recognize the excessive location of the extimate subject in order to unravel not only the contingency of the subject's ontic properties but also her locations in the interplay of oppression and privilege And fourth strategies for building political solidarity with transnational and transethnic communities of struggle that are grounded in the concrete Universality of the excluded communities This book bears witness to the radical possibility in contemporary postcolonial feminist writing and promises a way out of the impasse of the current culturalization of politics in the humanities that has resulted from the uncritical celebration of hybridity and the concomitant emphasis on diaspora postnationalism and cosmopolitanism in dominant discourses of postcolonial ethnic and transnational studies

The Troubadour of Knowledge Michel Serres, 1997 A meditation on the nature of education and the necessity of cross disciplinarity

Deleuze, Education and Becoming Inna Semetsky, 2006-01-01 This wonderful highly readable book breaks new ground in revealing commonalities between Deleuze's nomadic method of inquiry and the pragmatic method of John Dewey It should be of great interest to both philosophers and educators

NEL NODDINGS Stanford University author of Happiness And Education few have placed the thinking of Dewey into effective dialogue with other forms of philosophy This is particularly the case regarding contemporary European philosophy Inna Semetsky's exciting new book bridges this gap for the first time by putting the brilliant poststructuralist work of Gilles Deleuze into critical and creative dialogue with that of Dewey The publication of this work announces the appearance of a remarkable line of thinking that scholars around the world will soon come to appreciate

JIM GARRISON Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University author of Dewey and Eros In this subtle and graceful study Inna Semetsky brings together cultural and philosophical traditions long in need of connection This is a significant and powerful work that is sure to invigorate discussions of educational theory for years to come

RONALD BOGUE University of Georgia author of Deleuze's Wake Tribute and Tributaries

Telepresence & Bio Art Eduardo Kac, 2005 Eduardo Kac's work represents a turning point What it questions is our current attitudes to creativity taking that word in its most fundamental sense Edward Lucie Smith author of Visual Arts in the 20th Century His works introduce a vital new meaning into what had been known as the creative process while at the same time investing the notion of the artist inventor with an original social and ethical responsibility

Frank Popper author of Origins and Development of Kinetic Art Kac's radical approach to the creation and presentation of the body as a wet host for artificial memory and site specific work raises a variety of important questions that range from the status of memory in digital culture to the ethical dilemmas we are facing in the age of bioengineering and tracking technology

Christiane Paul Whitney Museum of Art For nearly two decades Eduardo Kac has been at the cutting edge of media art first inventing early online artworks for the web and continuously developing new art forms that involve telecommunications and robotics as a new platform for art Interest in telepresence also known as telerobotics exploded in the 1990s and remains an important development in media art Since that time Kac has increasingly moved into the fields of biology and biotechnology Telepresence and Bio Art is the first book to document the evolution of bio art and the aesthetic development of Kac the creator of the artist's gene as well as the controversial glow in the dark genetically engineered rabbit Alba Kac covers a broad range of topics within media art including telecommunications media interactive systems and the Internet telematics and robotics and the contact between electronic art and biotechnology Addressing emerging and complex topics this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary art

The Pleasures of Contamination David C. Greetham, 2010 Through the concept of contamination David Greetham highlights various ways that one text may invade another carrying with it a residue of potential meaning While the focus of this study is on written works the scope ranges widely over music politics art science philosophy religion and social studies Greetham argues that this sort of contamination is not only ubiquitous in contemporary culture but may also be a necessary and beneficial circumstance Tracing contamination from the Middle Ages onward he takes up issues such as the placement of quote marks in Keats's Ode to a Grecian Urn the controversy over the use of evidence for yellowcake uranium in Niger and the reconstitution of reality on YouTube to illustrate that the basic questions of evidence fact and voice have always been slippery concepts

The Moment of Complexity Mark C. Taylor, 2003-09 We live in a moment of unprecedented complexity an era in which change occurs faster than our ability to comprehend it With The Moment of Complexity Mark C Taylor offers a map for the unfamiliar terrain opening in our midst unfolding an original philosophy of our time through a remarkable synthesis of science and culture According to Taylor complexity is not just a breakthrough scientific concept but the defining quality of the post Cold War era The flux of digital currents swirling around us he argues has created a new network culture with its own distinctive logic and dynamic
