South and the Caribbean as a regional interculture shaped by performance as a space defined not so much by a shared set of geographical boundaries or by a single common culture as by the weave of performances and identities moving across and throughout it. By offering fresh ways for thinking about region language and performance the volume helps to reimagine the possibilities for American Studies. It advances beyond current analyses of historical or literary commonalities between the South and the Caribbean to explore startling and significant connections between a range of performances including Trinidadian carnival Civil War reenactments the Martinican dance form kalenda dramatic adaptations of Uncle Tom's Cabin rituals of spirit possession the teaching of Haitian Kreyòl the translation of Louisiana Creole and the imaginative travels of southern and Caribbean writers. While generating textual conversations among scholars of Francophone Anglophone and Hispanophone literature and culture and forging innovative ties between cultural studies performance studies linguistics literary analysis and studies of the African diaspora these essays raise provocative new questions about race ethnicity gender class and nationality.
