Simulation Spectacle And The Ironies Of Education Reform:

Simulation, Spectacle, and the Ironies of Education Reform Guy B. Senese, 1995-04-25 As long as there is good money to be made from ignoring or cultivating the ignorance of working people education for their children in the best sense is going to be a difficult goal This book delineates in three case studies how our main myths of emancipation and upward mobility work as images of delusion The frontier of space the arena of sports and the goal of employment all essential elements in the discourse of reform provide big windows into the absurd interior of the dreamscape of rhetorical hope that lay over the official landscape The teacher has been replaced by the user friendly standardized trainer coach cooperative facilitator who works in the swamps of student minds so drained by consumerism that false consciousness cannot even grow Reading the meaning of death in the ring death in the rocket murder in the workplace Senese makes us notice the simulated spectacular effects that distract from the important educational work that educators must do in this post industrial world Routledge

Library Editions: Higher Education Various, 2021-03-29 The volumes in this set originally published between 1964 and 2002 draw together research by leading academics in the area of higher education and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues The volume examines the concepts of learning teaching student experience and administration in relation to the higher education through the areas of business sociology education reforms government educational policy business and religion whilst also exploring the general principles and practices of higher education in various countries This set will be of particular interest to students and practitioners of education politics and sociology Anti-Racism, Feminism, and

Critical Approaches to Education Roxana Ng, Joyce Scane, Patricia Staton, 1995-07-24 This book maintains that there has not been sufficient dialogue and cross fertilization between various forms of critical approaches to education notably multicultural anti racist education feminist pedagogy and critical pedagogy Contributors from Canada and the United States address educational issues relevant to aboriginal peoples people of color and people of religious minorities in light of feminist and critical pedagogical theory They are sensitive and responsive to the power relations operative in a setting and address the multiple and contradictory subjectivities of teachers and learners on the basis of race gender class religion ethnicity age and ability Culture, Politics, and Irish School Dropouts G. Honor Fagan, 1995-11-06 This book summarizes structural reproduction and resistance theories of education and provides a social research approach to problems of social inequity It analyzes how these perspectives contribute to the political analysis of the production of early school departures and the consequent disadvantages and poverty Fagan follows a deconstructive approach to research methodology that presents a text in which real characters and events are brought to life Dublin working class kids speak for themselves tell their stories and discuss their futures openly They describe their schooling and their colorful responses to situations that seemed meaningless or demeaning when they were in school They share their insecurities about the future and their experiences with poverty and unemployment outside the mainstream of middle class society As a unique contribution to cultural studies and a rare ethnographic glimpse of Irish urban society this study establishes a model in educational and sociological research

Critical Pedagogy and the Covid-19 Pandemic Fatma Mizikaci, Eda Ata, 2022-05-05 Written by leading scholars and activists from Canada Germany Malta Norway Turkey and the USA this book offers international perspectives on critical pedagogy during the Covid 19 pandemic It examines the social and political impact of the pandemic on education and explores how the creation of digital communities has become indispensable in maintaining connectivity and building networks Including contributions from Michael W Apple Antonia Darder Henry A Giroux Peter Mayo Peter McLaren Wayne Ross and Ira Shor this volume examines critical issues controversies of education and social and political problems that have been exacerbated by the pandemic The chapters call for constructive critical consciousness and a commitment to social justice addressing current issues including Black Lives Matter racism poverty social and gender inequality women's rights and teachers isolation during the pandemic In part I the authors address these issues through the lenses of neoliberalism neo conservatism rightist ideology and capitalism Parts II and III of the volume offer inclusive perspectives personal accounts and regional outlooks on these issues and assess their influence on society and education during the Covid 19 pandemic

Neoliberalism and Education Reform E. Wayne Ross, Rich J. Gibson, 2007 This book has two primary goals a critique of educational reforms that result from the rise of neoliberalism and to provide alternatives to neoliberal conceptions of education problems and solutions A key issue addressed by contributors is how forms of critical consciousness can be engendered thought society via schools that is paying attention to the practical aspects of pedagogy for social transformation and organizing to achieve a most just society Jean Baudrillard Brian Gogan, 2017-11 This work is the first book length treatment of Jean Baudrillard as a rhetorical theorist American Education and Corporations Deron Boyles, 2018-10-09 Originally published in 1998 American Education and Corporations provides a detailed study of the effects of commercialisation on the public school system The book provides a powerful indictment of corporate culture and its influence on American public schooling within a clear theoretical framework The book looks at the threat of corporate culture to public education and advocates an understanding of the democratic importance of schooling as a public good Art, Alienation, and the Humanities Charles Reitz, 2000-02-10 Illustrates how Marcuse's theory sheds new light on current debates in both education and society involving issues of multiculturalism postmodernism civic education the culture wars critical thinking and critical literacy Throwing Voices Guy B. Senese, 2007-09-01 This book is a search for the promises of public education and the places where these are broken by critics feeding at the academic and professional trough This book is a venture in critical auto ethnography Exploring critique through this ethnographic technique has allowed me to bring stories to the reader that work to illuminate the personal nature of educational ethics It works to fill the gap in education critique where self examination is missing It is a cultural study of five different educational environments Research in cultural studies attempts to account for cultural objects under conditions constrained by power and defined by contestation conflict and change Cultural Studies grapples with the volatility of cultural happenings Throwing Voices emphasizes self reflexivity an awareness that scholars and their scholarship are themselves caught up in the social currents and in the global circulation of meanings being studied In taking up questions from this perspective cultural studies both draws on and develops key strands of contemporary cultural theory semiotics deconstruction and poststructuralism dialogics subaltern and postcolonial studies The field also draws on and develops a number of innovative methodologies autoethnography blurred genres of writing and other new forms of critical research I pay homage to satirist Lenny Bruce and it has earned me a one way ticket to scholarly palookaville I had actually not virtually transgressed in a conference forum where virtual radicalism routinely trumps reality I sold cars and write about the intersection of values in education and this pinnacle of American commerce Here is also a chronicle of time spent as evaluator in a small Native American school with an effort to draw attention to the world of socialclass yet catalogue my own complicity in the evaluation game And here I present my decisions as a state education department bureaucrat set against the moral universe of the Chicago poetry slam Finally this is work to find the truth in a critical race theory and hopes for solidarity in art in jazz and in the world of New Orleans music I attempt to follow the breadcrumbs back through a career to find the source of compassion for working people and their children and potential solidarity through a clearer more honest language than the language of higher education and administration
