Morgan-Ellis, 2018-01-15

During the 1920s a visit to the movie theater almost always included a sing-along. Patrons joined together to render old favorites and recent hits usually accompanied by the strains of a mighty Wurlitzer organ. The organist was responsible for choosing the repertoire and presentation style that would appeal to his or her patrons so each theater offered a unique experience. When sound technology drove both musicians and participatory culture out of the theater in the early 1930s the practice faded and was eventually forgotten. Despite the popularity and ubiquity of community singing it was practiced in every state in theaters large and small. There has been scant research on the topic. This volume is the first dedicated account of community singing in the picture palace and includes nearly one hundred images such as photographs of the movie houses' opulent interiors, reproductions of sing-along slides and stills from the original Screen Songs, follow the bouncing ball cartoons. Esther M. Morgan-Ellis brings the era of movie palaces to life. She presents the origins of theater sing-alongs in the prewar community singing movement, describes the basic components of a sing-along, explores the unique presentation styles of several organists, and assesses the aftermath of sound technology including the sing-along films and children's matinees of the 1930s. Kidware Ira Mayer, 1988 Your Baby's First Year Knowledge Treasure Collection, Congratulations on Your New Baby. You have a new baby and you are a proud parent. Do you sometimes feel excited but also a little nervous about taking care of your new baby? Then you are like most parents. Even in the first days of life your baby is starting to find out who you are. Research has found that very young babies know the difference between their parents and strangers. There are many changes that take place and new things to learn when you become a parent. It doesn't happen overnight. Be patient with yourself. The love you have for your baby will help you learn to become a good parent. Just as no two babies are exactly alike, no one takes care of a baby in exactly the same way. Be a loving parent. Do your best. American Film and Video Festival, 1987 Roget's Thesaurus of English Words and Phrases Christopher Orlando Sylvester Mawson, 1911
