Civic Multiculturalism in Singapore Terri-Anne Teo, 2019-06-05 This book is about multiculturalism broadly defined as the recognition respect and accommodation of cultural differences Teo proposes a framework of multicultural citizenship that includes group specific rights and intercultural dialogue by problematising three issues a the unacknowledged misrecognition of non citizens within the scholarship of multiculturalism b uncritical treatment of citizens and non citizens as binary categories and c problematic parcelling of group specific rights with citizenship rights Drawing on the case of Singapore as an illustrative example where temporary labour migrants are culturally stereotyped socioeconomically disenfranchised and denied access to rights accorded only to citizens Teo argues that understandings of multiculturalism need to be expanded and adjusted to include a fluidity of identities spectrum of rights and shared experiences of marginalisation among citizens and non citizens Civic Multiculturalism in Singapore will be of interest to students and scholars of multiculturalism critical citizenship studies migration studies political theory and postcolonial studies

Department of the Army,1971 Red Lines Cherian George,Sonny Liew,2021-09-21 A lively graphic narrative reports on censorship of political cartoons around the world featuring interviews with censored cartoonists from Pittsburgh to Beijing Why do the powerful feel so threatened by political cartoons Cartoons don t tell secrets or move markets Yet as Cherian George and Sonny Liew show us in Red Lines cartoonists have been harassed trolled sued fired jailed attacked and assassinated for their insolence The robustness of political cartooning one of the most elemental forms of political speech says something about the health of democracy In a lively graphic narrative illustrated by Liew himself a prize winning cartoonist Red Lines crisscrosses the globe to feel the pulse of a vocation under attack A Syrian cartoonist insults the president and has his hands broken by goons An Indian cartoonist stands up to misogyny and receives rape threats An Israeli artist finds his antiracist works censored by social media algorithms And the New York Times caught in the crossfire of the culture wars decides to stop publishing editorial cartoons completely Red Lines studies thin skinned tyrants the invisible hand of market censorship and demands in the name of social justice to rein in the right to offend It includes interviews with more than sixty cartoonists and insights from art historians legal scholars and political scientists all presented in graphic form This engaging account makes it clear that cartoon censorship doesn t just matter to cartoonists and their fans When the red lines are misapplied all citizens are potential victims Overseas Chinese Entrepreneurship and Capitalist Development in Southeast Asia Annabelle R. Gambe,2000 The study aims at finding an explanation to the economic development of Southeast Asia To achieve this end Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines have been chosen as the foci of the study To explain the region s recent success the study is guided by the hypothesis that overseas Chinese entrepreneurship exercised by a group belonging to a discriminated ethnic minority is an indispensable component of the capitalist development of Southeast Asia Overseas

Chinese businesses dominate nearly all branches of the economy of their respective countries of residence. On a regional scale, they are acknowledged to control two thirds of the region's retail trade. The hypothesis of the study is validated by the empirical findings. Furthermore, the study has arrived at the conclusion that Southeast Asia is host to a type of entrepreneurship: Overseas Chinese entrepreneurship that evolved and developed throughout the centuries and proven for its resiliency and risk-taking abilities. It did not create the boom in the region; however, Liberal government policies, the inflow of huge foreign capital, and the availability of cheap and skilled labor among the indigenous population are among the more crucial factors that facilitated this transformation. China Forever Poshek Fu, 2008. The transnational history and cultural politics of the Shaw Brothers movie empire.
